CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

A book is like a magic-box—
Brimful of lovely treasures;
One quaint, old-fashioned key unlocks
Good gifts in generous measure;
Gay songs, and words like jewels old,
Tales carved from ancient times,
And shining legends set in gold,
And chains of silver rhymes.

A book is like a white-sailed ship
Across bright waters bearing
On many a blithe and jaunty trip
Of pleasure, search or daring—
To lands of flower, and lands of snow,
Bright shore and lonely bay,
To strange old quays of long ago,
And harbors of today.

A book is like a faithful friend,
With heart that's always ready;
A comrade faithful to the end,
Wise, understanding, steady;
Good company at school, at home,
Gay pal for cozy nooks.
Heigho, for now and years to come
Let's sing the praise of books!

A book is like a magic-box—brimful of lovely treasures!

We hope that in later years Memorabilia XIX will be the magic-box unlocked to unfold pleasant memories of our High School Days.

The staff has striven hard to make Memorabilia a white-sailed ship bearing a cargo of the varied experiences that occurred in the never-to-be-forgotten four years.

The members of the Class Book Staff sincerely trust that this book will meet the approval of the members of the Class of 1932, and the appreciation of all who read it.

Tribute to the Faculty

Finally, as the year ends, and each senior grasps firmly in his hand the coveted diploma which he has labored so hard to attain, it is with the utmost joy and feeling of accomplishment that each of us realizes he has ascended another rung in the ladder of achievement.

But on the other hand, it is altogether fitting that we should express in some way our appreciation of the faculty who have labored so hard in order to help us reach our goal. The teaching profession has its moments of stress and strain, and there are times when the tempers of even the most patient teachers are tried.

The Class of '32 was by no means a model class. Heated discussions have often passed between this class and the members of the faculty. And so with a sense of shame and apology for the hardships and trials we have caused them to undergo, we wish that it be known that all is forgotten. Now we shall try to remember only the fact that our teachers were moved by motives which had their origin in their regard for our interests. And thanking them with grateful hearts for all that they have done for us, we leave our dear old Alma Mater, wishing to assure our teachers that we shall do our utmost to prove ourselves worthy of their esteem and friendship.

Team Work

By EDGAR A. GUEST

It's all very well to have courage and skill
And it's fine to be counted a star,
But the single deed with its touch of thrill
Doesn't tell us the man you are;
For there's no lone hand in the game we play,
We must work to a bigger scheme;
And the thing that counts in the world today
Is how do you pull with the team ?

They may sound your praise and may call you great,
They may single you out for fame,
But you must work with your running mate
Or never you'll win the game;
For never the work of life is done
By the man with a selfish dream,
For the battle is lost or the battle is won
By the spirit of the team.

It is all very well to fight for fame,
But the cause is a bigger need,
And what you do for the good of the game
Counts more than the flash of speed;
It's the long, long haul and the dreary grind,
Where the stars but faintly gleam,
And it's leaving all thought of self behind
That fashions a winning team.

You may think it fine to be praised for skill,
But a greater thing to do
Is to set your mind and set your will
On the goal that's just in view;
It's helping your fellow man to score
When his chances hopeless seem,
It's forgetting self till the game is o'er
And fighting for the team.

"Sophisticated but yet so delightful"

MARGUERITE ESTELLE ANGIER

"Margie" "Peg" "Meg"

College Course

History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Junior Prom Committee; Musical Comedy 1-2.

Have you ever had a pal who always defended you and on whom you could rely for consolation? "Marg" certainly fills that position. She is one of our good-looking girls and is usually quiet in school—but you should see her outside.

"Peg" is popular with both sexes and you can seldom find her at home. We wonder if there is anything in the fact that most of "Marg's" mail has a New York postmark. She attends all the social functions of the school, and we know of no other person who seems to enjoy them more. A loyal supporter of the teams, you can always depend on Marguerite being at all the games.

If you hear a low chuckle that sounds like a laugh and then again doesn't, you'll know "Marg" is at it again with the "gang" in the Hall. And at assemblies she is usually found in one of the three end seats, when the testimonials are given out.

A hospital in New Jersey is to be the next recipient of "Peg's" charms. If she can't cure the patients, their cases are hopeless. Wishing Marguerite luck, we are sure she will be successful.

"She is pretty to walk with and witty to talk with, and pleasant too, to think on"

HELEN ELIZABETH BALBONI

"Shrimp" "Baloney" "Heb"

College Course

Vice-President 3-4; Class Day Committee 1-2-3-4; Debating Club 1; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Senior Show; Interclass Dramatics 1-2-3; Musical Comedy 1-2-3-4; Junior Prom Committee; Ring Committee; Honorary Member of Clinton Historical Society; Washington Pageant; Le Cercle Francais; History Circle; Reading Club; Track 1-2; Class Book Staff; Cheer Leader 4.

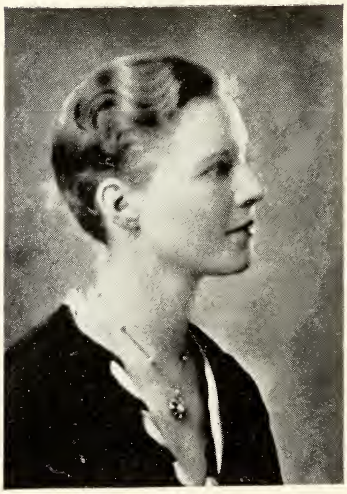
If you see a very short person with a little knob on the back of her head rushing around the school, you'll know that it's Helen in a hurry to go——. Helen is one of the jolliest girls in the class, always ready to laugh and very seldom seen without a smile.

She has been the vice-president of our class for the past two years and has served us well. Helen is also the actress of the class of '32 having "emoted" in nearly every show since her Freshman year.

Helen followed up all the sports very enthusiastically and need we state why? In her role as cheer-leader this year, she did varied forms of calesthenics. What would we girls under the "skylight" in the Hall do without Helen's little "Lizzie?" It has certainly helped us on many occasions.

Helen is planning on going to Smith next fall, and we know that she'll be successful in whatever she undertakes. But we wonder if some wise man won't have something to say about her being anyone's private secretary but his. Good Luck, Helen.

"Individuality personified"



HAZEL ERNESTINE BABCOCK

"Ginger"

General Course

History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Chairman Adv. Committee Junior Prom; Reading Club; Musical Comedy.

"Better late than never," so they say! If the hall wasn't quite so far from 990 Main Street, Hazel wouldn't have to race the tardy bell to school every day. But all joking aside, it would take plenty more than a bell to beat "Ginger." She is one of the most active seniors in High School, unexcelled in dancing, and takes an interest in all sports—especially basketball!

Individuality is the key-note to Hazel's character. Many have tried to wear the "bob" that is so attractively worn by her, but have given up in despair.

Although society claims much of Hazel's time, she manages to get by in her studies (and receive testimonials in Biology!) She is rarely seen alone, you know, "two heads are better than one," and when they're both blondes——!

Hazel hasn't definitely decided what she will do after graduation, but is considering nursing. We wish you the best of luck in whatever you undertake, Hazel.

"Gallant, graceful, gentle, tall,
Fairest, noblest, best of all"

ISOLINE CONSTANCE BATTISTA
"Izzie" "Snookie"
Commercial Course
History Circle; Photography Club; Class Book Staff; Junior Prom Committee; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Musical Comedy 4; Reading Club.

"Izzie" is such an unusual person that we are at a loss where to commence, to say nothing of where to leave off.

"Snookie" is the other half of that famous "Sookie-Snookie" corporation whose call is heard all over the school.

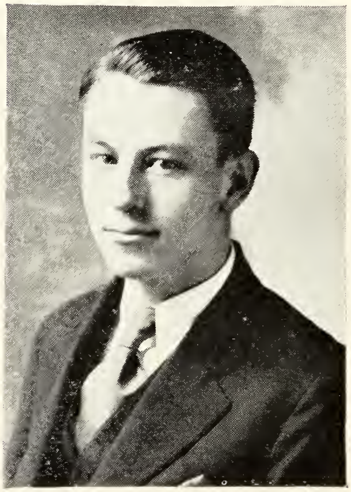
"Izzie" is also a member of that famous trio who kept the Chemistry teacher busy answering questions. But then, one must not think she burned the "midnight oil," for school held no terror for her. "Life is too short, why worry?" said she.

As associate editor and typist on our class book staff, "Izzie" did more than her share toward making the contribution of 1932 a memorable one in the long list of Memorabilias.

"Snookie" likes basketball and all sports and we are sure that by the love of good sportsmanship which must result from such contact, that her future success in any profession is assured. In particular, we are sure that "Izzie" is going to do some "big thing" in the nursing profession that will make all the members of our class be delighted to point out her name and boast that she was a member of '32.

Endless success and boundless happiness to you, "Izzie."

"I hate nobody, I am in charity with the world"



RICHARD JOSEPH BRENNAN

"Dick"

General Course

Senior Show; Interclass Dramatics 2-3; Glee Club 4; History Circle.

Yes, folks, here is no other but "Dick" Brennan himself. The little misfortune he had during his senior year didn't stop him for an instant.

Oh yes! it's true that he is one of the most accomplished pianists of the senior class. Didn't you hear him at the History Circle dance? You didn't know he had it in him? Well you don't know "Dick."

"Dick" proved that he was an actor of no little talent in the senior show when he took the part as the "hard-boiled detective" to perfection.

To a person who is not acquainted with "Dick," it will seem that he is an unusually quiet fellow, but his very close associates will vouch that such is not the case.

He is noted for his many acquaintances and having belonged to a military branch of our government, namely the C. M. T. C., he knows people, far and wide. The fact that he has many acquaintances indicates his good nature and temperament, which he shows daily in High School.

We know that "Dick's" nature and temperament will not change in the future years, and certainly "Dick" has all the good wishes that the class of '32 can bestow on him.

"By his fruits you shall know him"

WILLIAM THOMAS BURKE

"Bunk" "Bill"

General Course

Baseball 1-2; Interclass Football 1-2; Ticket Committee for Junior Prom and Senior Show; French Club 2.

Here's "Bunk," your friend, our friend and everybody's friend. Can you find anyone, anywhere, who knows "Bill" and doesn't speak well of him? We think not.

When "Bunk" first came to High School he said little to anyone and attended strictly to his own affairs. This routine kept on for some time, until finally the call for baseball candidates was issued, and at last, "Bunk," unwilling as he was, was brought into public notice. "Bill" roamed the outer gardens, and, when the team was in desperate straits, filled in as a pitcher.

"Bunk" is never seen in the presence of ladies. That is one feature which stands out in his High School career. However this is through no fault of "Bill's," but merely because of his utter disregard for the opposite sex.

"Bill's" abilities are many and we know he will be a success. We wish him all the luck of "32" in his chosen walk of live.

"Leave no stone unturned"

FRANCIS WILLIAM BURNS

"Burnsie"

Commercial Course

History Circle; Glee Club; Interclass Baseball 1-2; Interclass Football 1; French Club 2; Varsity Baseball 3-4.

Behold the innocent and serene looking countenance. Is there any sign of boldness or liveliness in this picture? The answer is no, decidedly no. "Frank" is a quiet looking boy on the surface, but smooth water runs deep, and down deep is where "Frank" runs wildest.

As a student "Frank" compared with any of the boys, and he could spiel off a mean old line in U. S. Although it's rather far to go back, never will we forget his side-bursting themes in English II. "Frank's" weekly topics were parodies on the "Collegians," greats of filmland. It was with considerable ability that "Frank" wrote these compositions, and it was to the great amusement of the class and the boosting of "Frank's" grades, that he was so successful.

The one thing that "Frank" takes seriously is baseball, and on the ball field is the one place where his calmness cannot be broken. "Frank" sure was some pitcher.

No matter what line of endeavor will finally be chosen by "Frank," the class of '32 will cheer him on.

Good luck, "Frank."

"She made the sun shine in a shady place"

MABEL GRACE CAIRNS

"Mab"

General Course

Eta Nu Gamma; Musical Comedy 1-4; Junior Prom Committee; Photography Club; Class Day Committees 1-2-3-4; History Circle Committees; Recording Secretary of History Circle.

A suggestion of a giggle, a real giggle, a laugh, and then, for crying out loud, here's Mabel! How many of us have been caught laughing when Mabel is in our presence. Those big good-natured tears that trickle down her cheeks after her laugh are a cure for any man's blues. This is one reason why she is never alone.

It has been rumored about that our "Mab" has an insatiable hunger for sweets. Many have raised their hands in horror at her appetite, but she goes right on eating in her own "sweet" way. Although she is not undernourished, she has not gone too far in avoirdupois, thanks to her daily walk from Laurel Street and her race with Helen up the stairs to the study hall every morning.

How many of us will ever forget Mabel as recording secretary of the History Circle and her original way of calling off the names. She was one of the reasons why our Poverty Party was such a success, and she certainly "stood the public gaze" with her snappy outfit as Marie Dressler.

Mabel plans to go in training at some hospital when she leaves C. H. S. and we know her patients will find her a cheerful, helpful, and efficient nurse. Her sunny disposition and happy smile will win her many friends in the future as they did at Clinton High.

"Principle is ever my model, not expediency"

CHARLOTTE SARA CAMPBELL

"Lottie" "Charlie"

General Course

Debating Club; Musical Comedy 1-2; French Club 2; History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma 2.

Charlotte takes to studying as ducks take to water, but nevertheless, who believes in excessive studying anyway. "Charlie's" favorite subject seems to be Latin in which she can recite the first and second declensions without the aid of her Latin book. We have Mr. Mitchell who can prove that.

"Lottie" started to show her ability to debate during her Freshman year. Give her any subject under the sun and she will prepare a winning argument. She also can act in plays with as much ease, etc., etc., as Ethel Barrymore.

The best part of school-days to Charlotte is the vacations. Then she tries to make up the sleep which she loses in getting up early in order to meet her school-chums at 7:30 at the corner.

All fooling aside—"Lottie" is a very enjoyable companion who is always good-natured and full of fun.

Charlottle is to enter the nursing profession in which we know that she will find many, many, new friends who will enjoy her "happy-go-lucky" manner.

The Class of '32 wishes you every success and happiness in the world for the future.

"A man can die but once"

JOSEPH EDWARD CARR

"Joe" "Cicero"

College Course

Interclass Basketball 1; Interclass Football 1; History Circle; Glee Club; Tau Sigma.

The spot light is now focused on "Joe," the bright young man who shook the dust of '33 from his shoes and sped on to '32, thus gaining the coveted diploma and leaving dear old C. H. S. in three years.

Although "Joe" didn't lose much of this dust on the aisle of the Town Hall going up for "Testies," nevertheless he managed to get through without a great deal of difficulty and we all know that making the grade in High School in three years is a tough grind.

By the way, "Joe" always enjoys anything that's tough. There is no such word as failure in his vocabulary. It is his delight to tackle things which proved too much for some ordinary person,—and carry them on to successful conclusion with an ease which was discouraging to us poor mortals, who plugged hard for what we got.

"Joe" never got tired carrying books home, but we can all understand why the "Burditt Hill Grocery Store" operated at a profit.

"Joe's" future activities in scholastic pursuits are unknown, but whatever they may be we all know that he will be successful.

Best of luck, "Joe."

"A better day, the better deed"

ROCCO JOSEPH CASASANTO

"Rocky" "Rico"

College Course

French Club 2; History Circle 4.

Rocco was one of those fellows who had a mania for keeping quiet and yet could make plenty of noise. During classes he was usually sedate and industrious but outside he was just one more "Acre-ite." Rocco's most difficult problem, however, was keeping awake in French, or so it seemed.

He was always well burdened with his stack of books on his way to and from school. And the quality of his remarks and answers in class proved that he did more than just carry them back and forth.

One of Rocco's weak points (and they are few and far between) was the weaker sex. His only recognition of them was a blush here and there or a timid glance.

Rocco hasn't quite decided what he will do next year, but we know that whatever it is, he will make a big success of it.

Good luck, Rocco, from your classmates of '32.

"A daughter of the gods; divinely tall and divinely fair"

MARY LOUISE CLOUGHERTY

"Lou"

General Course

Reading Club; Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Musical Comedy 4; Senior Show; Financial Secretary of History Circle.

When "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" was written, Louise must have been the inspiration. We all appreciate the fact that her hair lights up the dim corridors for us when she's around.

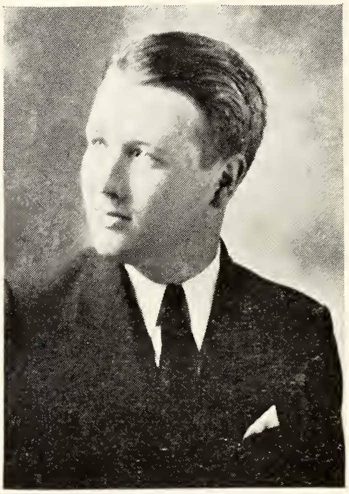
"Lou" is the financial secretary of our History Circle and let it not be said that beauty goes without brains in this case. No one calls her Mary and there is only one person who is allowed to call her Mary Louise and we're going to be like daisies and "not tell."

In the Senior show Louise showed us that she had dramatic ability, also "Lou" may look like a saint but we who know her can testify that she's very, very human. If there is any mischief done, or a noise made in the hall, you can be sure that Louise is among the culprits. She is also another one of the "gang" who sits under the skylight.

Louise is planning on entering the Massachusetts General Hospital to become a nurse. Anyway, the class wishes her success in whatever she undertakes and we know she'll get what she goes after.

Good luck, "Lou."

"Whatever is laudible must be great"



MICHAEL JOSEPH CONLON, JR.

"Mickey" "Mike" "Mikey"

College Course

Junior Prom Committee; Junior Marshal; Varsity Football 2; Assistant Editor-in chief Class Book; Honorary Member of Historical Society; History Circle.

Within this whole world there is no personality more winning than that which springs from sincerity. The instant you come in contact with such a personality you are aware of its existence. That is why "Mickey's" recitations in class often smacked of brilliance and endeared him to those who were fortunate to know him.

He could always be depended upon for a translation or explanation in Latin.

No one who knew him could resist his winning smile and never-ending humor.

"Mickey's" athletic achievements were suddenly halted by an unfortunate accident that prevented him from becoming the leading tackle on the team.

An earnest student and a fine sportsman, his determination will lead him a long way in his chosen profession.

Holy Cross will claim this genial personality next year. So long and good luck, "Mickey."

"The truly generous is the truly wise"

GERTRUDE ELIZABETH CROSSMAN

"Gert" "Red"

Commercial Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Washington Pageant.

Station C. H. S. introducing the "bright hair" student of '32. Not only her hair is bright, for "Red" does manage to get "testies" now and then. She is one of those calm and serene girls and a sure example of nerve tonic. When exams come around do you see "Carrots" worried? We should say not and she always comes out on top, too.

Whenever we see "Red," "Stretch" is sure to be with her. These two are the closest of friends, and there is always something doing when they are together—for instance, talking. Sometimes our curiosity is aroused and we wonder "who" is the interesting topic of their conversation.

Those that know "Gert" are familiar with her happy-go-lucky nature. And she is always willing to aid one of the slower students. If "Gert" could tickle the ivories the way she attacks the typewriter keys, Paderewski would be put to shame.

From this we gather "Red" is planning to enter the business world. The best of luck to you, "Gert," from '32.

"Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath"

NICHOLAS SAMUEL DESPOTOPULOS

"Nick" "Achilles" "Nicky"

College Course

History Circle; Le Cercle Francais, French Club 2; Interclass Football; Interclass Baseball; Glee Club; Junior Prom Committee.

Here he is in the flesh, the rollicking, frollicking jester of our class, "Nick" Despotopulos, otherwise known as "Crisco." "Nick" spends all his spare time down in the Central Fire Station. Maybe he desires to be a fireman some day. At any rate he's learning the trade from the bottom up. They say he even knows how to play checkers now.

"Nick" is the sort of lad who can't help but make good in this world. He has all the abilities characteristic of success, and he uses them to good advantage. With seemingly no study at all, he has managed to obtain a standing of very creditable grade, and has amazed us all with his never-ending wit in the classroom.

As an imitator and mimic, "Nick" has no superior. His ability to impersonate Lon Chaney and other screen greats, has often held us in awe.

One of the great points of interest concerning "Nick," is his ability to keep quiet during his French period. This is highly unusual for a lad of "Nick's" natural merry-making abilities.

"Nick" has not definitely decided about his future as yet—but whatever it might be, we know that he'll climb the ladder to reach success.

Good luck from '32, "Nick."

"Whence has come our lasting power"

HARVEY ADIEL DUDLEY

"Uncle"

General Course

Tau Sigma; Glee Club; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; French Club 2; Science Club.

"Harvey" is one of those quiet fellows who always manages to pull in about a second or two before the tardy bell rings. With the day thus started he takes his chances on not being called on in his various classes, especially "Math."

In English we are taught figures of speech, but we just can't tell which one we are trying to show here—but in plain American we claim that "Uncle Dudley," as he is sometimes called, has several characteristics from which great men develop.

Harvey has one very bad habit and that is spending too much time thinking up new excuses and alibies, but his pleasant disposition frequently displays a likeable humor both subjectively and objectly, all of which tends to make him an agreeable companion and classmate.

Just what school Harvey intends to enter, he is undecided, but we all express the fond hope that his path through life be cheerful and his success unlimited.

"She's little but she's wise,
She's a terror for her size"

ELEANOR THERESE EAKINS

"Shrimp" "Elie"

Commercial Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

Need we introduce Eleanor? We think not. "Elie" has been in the limelight since she entered C. H. S. On first appearances "Shrimp" seems quite demure. But looks are deceiving. Find any rumpus in or outside of school and nine times out of ten "Shrimp" will be in the center. Her cheery smile has won her unlimited friendships.

Eleanor is a dear friend of all the teachers, this perhaps accounting for the delightful afternoons she spends in their presence. However, "Elie" always manages to come out O. K. in her studies, although she has never been known to study.

"Elie" attends all the social functions and we must admit she has one glorious time at them all.

"Elie" intends to take up the profession of nursing. We know that her charming personality will be a great asset to her. Good-bye, Eleanor, best wishes of '32 go with you.

"Words cannot express her infinite sweetness"

MARY FRANCES FLANAGAN

"Finnie"

Commercial Course

Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Senior Show Committee; Eta Nu Gamma 3; Honorary Member of Clinton Historical Society.

Of all the girls in our class, one of the quietest is "Finnie." She may have been quiet, but she always had quick, responsive, brilliant answers.

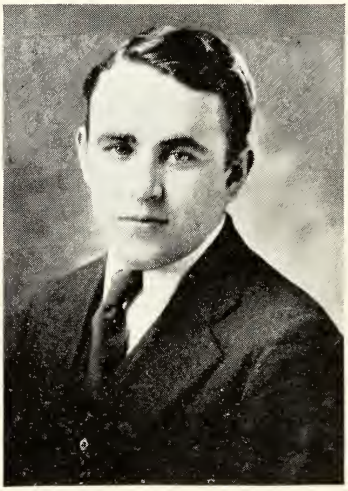
Mary, with Helen and Ann, will certainly be missed by the remaining pupils They could always be seen standing at the radiator in the corridor.

In every class-room, club and school activity, Mary and Helen have been together.

"Finnie" is much noted for her deep blush. We always looked at Mary with expectation (and we were seldom disappointed) to see her blush when she was called upon to recite. Of course everybody knows blushing is a sign of innocence(?)

We look forward to seeing "Finnie" as "Somebody's Stenog." We know she will succeed at this, and our sincere wishes go with her.

"Brain and brawn well combined"



PHILIP FRANCIS FLANAGAN

"Fiddy"

College Course

Baseball 1; Basketball 1; Football 1; History Circle; Glee Club.

Here is a boy we feel needs no introduction. He has been able to introduce himself into the limelight quite successfully as the mainstay of all our athletic teams—football, basketball, and baseball.

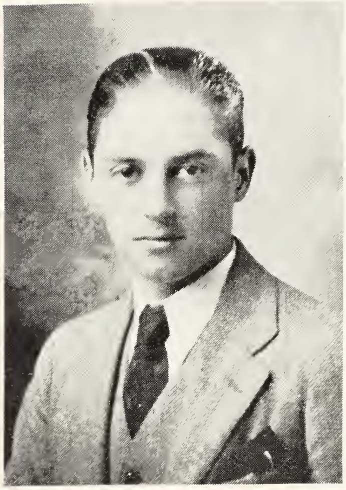
"Fiddie's" athletic activities were not confined to Clinton. Last year "Phid" was the "big-gun" on the Seton Hall Prep athletic teams, and the Sport-Writers out that way thought so much of him that they chose "Phil" as "All-State Full-back."

Although "Fiddie" is kept busy with sports, he still finds time to get his studies done as the number of testimonials that he receives each quarter proves. And don't forget that "Phid" has always taken six subjects in High School, and that he will have earned his diploma after only three years' work. This is not accomplished very often. It only goes to prove further that "Phiddie's" talents are not athletic.

"Fiddie" is very enthusiastic over Columbia University, and will enter there next fall to continue his studies.

Good-bye, "Phid," and good-luck.

"He was a good man and just"



WALTER JOHN FUCHS

"Wally"

Commercial Course

French Club 2; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

Here is "Wally," the quiet punctual lad, who always makes it a point to be at school on time. He is one of those reserved sort of lads, mixing in with few, but those who were fortunate enough to have a standing friendship with him, realize what a true pal and regular fellow "Wally" is.

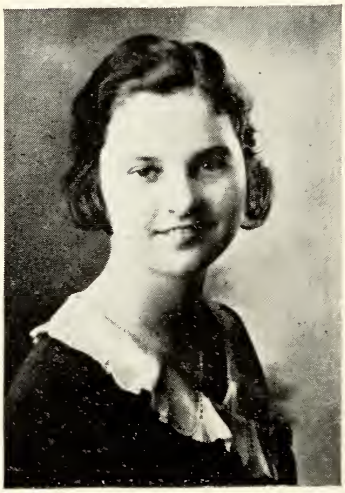
One of his great assets is his ability to study. He practically devotes all his spare time to his books, and the majority of his recesses were taken up with his "stenog." His ability to gain the coveted "85" in his studies has kept him in the high regards of the faculty and has oft-times made him the envy of his less studious classmates.

He has no doings at all with the fair sex and his discourse with them usually consists of a timid "hello" or some such greeting.

"Wally's" ambitions have been disclosed to few, but we all know he will be successful in his pursuit of further knowledge.

Good luck, "Wally," the best wishes of '32 are with you.

"Her very frowns are fairer far
Than smiles of other maidens are"



RUTH TERRICE GORMAN

"Ruthie" "Rufus"

Normal Course

Junior Prom Committee; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; History Circle;
Senior Show Committee.

"Ruthie" is the name by which we all know her. We all envy her sometimes for her personality.

If you haven't had the pleasure of meeting "our Ruthie," there's still a treat in store for you. Ruth is the kind of a girl who never looks on the dark side of things, because she knows that however dark the clouds may seem now, the sun will shine by and by.

"Ruthie" manages to keep in touch with the social life of the school and at the same time be a good student. One of Ruth's greatest weaknesses was her ever-present desire to talk to her neighbors during class and to one in particular in Room 5 ? ? ?

Ruth says she is going to Forsyth. It is our opinion that she will make a very pleasant hygienist and thus be a great comfort to her patients.

We all wish her luck in her chosen profession.

"It is not enough to do good; one must do it in the right way"

DAVID FALK GOULD

"Dave" "Davy" "Gouly"

College Course

History Circle 4; French Club; Glee Club 4; Orchestra 1-2-3-4; Football 3; Editor-in-chief of "Le Petit Journal"; Senior Show; Junior Prom Committee; Reading Club; Interclass Dramatics 4; Washington Pageant.

"Davy" is far from being one of the noisiest members of the class but don't let this influence you into thinking that he is quiet by any means. Whenever there is any fun or mischief to be had, "Dave" is right on the spot.

His success at studies and his willingness to help anybody proved his worth in more ways than one.

Although "Dave" participated only in football, his staunch loyalty brought him to all the athletic contests and his "bit" was contributed by rooting.

In his Senior year, "Davy" knocked on dramatic's door and was admitted first to portray the role of the "Town Crier" in the Washington Pageant in which he conducted his part to perfection, and then as a member of the Senior Interclass Show he again demonstrated his ability.

"Davy" as editor of our French newspaper, "Le Petit Journal,"—the first of its kind to be attempted in the school, deserves much praise as we all know what a task it was to translate news into French.

"Dave's" destination for further learning is Boston University and we have no doubt at all that he will acquire the same success there that he has here. Remember that in whatever you participate, the wishes of '32 are with you always.

"She was a form of life and light,
That seen, became a part of sight"

ANN MARIE GRADY

"Shortie"

Commercial Course

History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma; Junior Prom Committee; Musical Comedy 2; Senior Show Committee.

There is so much we could say about "our Ann," that we could write for hours and then not be finished. She is one of those happy persons who can be relied upon to see the joke in anything. She believes in the saying, "Laugh and the world laughs with me," and, needless to say, she has won many friends during her four years in high school, by her carefree and cheerful disposition.

"Shortie" is quite capable of whispering too much in study periods, but we will forgive her for that, because it is "sometimes" something relative to school work. Whenever any of the girls taking stenography IV wish to know how to transcribe a word, Ann usually furnishes the answer. And can she take dictation!

Ann has always thought she would like to be a nurse and now in her Senior year, she still holds that ambition. She has all the qualities a good nurse should have, and we are sure that if she follows this ambition, she will meet with great success. But no matter what she becomes, a nurse or "somebody's stenog," she will make people the better for having known her.

The class of 32's sincere wish is that Ann will have an abundance of good luck and that she will never forget her former classmates.

"I will maintain it before the whole world"

RUSSELL LANCASTER GRISWOLD

"Russ" "Grizy" "Bonzo"

College Course

Varsity Football 2-4; Varsity Basketball 2; Interclass Basketball 4; Interclass Track Meet 2; History Circle 3.

Russell is a fine "fellow." We all know that. He must be, or he would never have been able to get thru' four years of High School without, at the same time, getting in dutch with the "Fac."

As for studies, "Griss" never was a bookworm so his was not the task of carrying home any testimonials.

It was a frequent occurrence to see "Russie" dash into the building like a whirlwind, slam his hat on the hook and enter the home-room just as the last bell was ringing. However, knowing that "Russ" hailed from that neighboring suburb of ours, Lancaster, we often wondered how he ever got here on time as he did.

"Russ" distinguished himself as a member of the football team during his Senior year, and did his best to bring victory to C. H. S. As a plugging fullback —he piled up plenty of yardage for the purple and white—and displayed much of that most essential football quality, a fighting spirit.

We are all interested in what "Russ" is going to do next year, but he won't let us in on it; so, all we can do is to say, "Good-bye, Russ," the class of '32 will always be pulling for you.

"Be sure you are right and then go ahead"

GERTRUDE JUANITA HANNEY

"Gert" "Gertie"

Normal Course

Junior Prom Committee; Musical Comedy 1; Eta Nu Gamma 2; History Circle.

Gertrude came to us the first year of high, a sweet, demure, little miss whose charming ways enables her to make friends everywhere.

She is very small, but as the saying goes, "Good things come in small packages" as is true in this case.

Gertrude, we think, was one of the most conscientious members of our class in regard to studies. One could always know, pupils and faculty alike, that if she did not have her lessons done, it was not because she did not try to do them. This spirit is commendable, Gertrude, and we know it will came in handy later on.

We hear she is talented at the piano, although we have not had the pleasure of hearing her play as yet, but we certainly would like to.

We know that Gertrude will succeed in her profession in life and we know that she will keep up the standards of Clinton High.

We wish you luck, Gertrude, and may your ship sail smoothly o'er the sea of life.

"Sweeter also than the honey and honeycomb"

FRIEDA HEINOLD

College Course

Eta Nu Gamma 3; History Circle; Washington Pageant; Vice-President of German Club 4.

Of course it's hardly necessary, but since customary, we now introduce to you, Frieda. It is an uncommon sight to see her without the other half—Helen. These two have been "Damon-Pythias-ing" it ever since they were "that high."

If you believe in that maxim "looks are deceiving" here is an illustration of it. This naive Fraulien may be seen at most dances and is a faithful attendant to the football games. (For no apparent reason did I hear you say?)

The man who wins Frieda will certainly be lucky, for she is no "dumb Dora." She can sew, she can cook, in fact, do most anything. She certainly is a dexterous person. Just ask anyone who has been fortunate enough to taste her fudge!

Here is one girl who doesn't idle away her time. Whenever the end of a quarter rolls around, Frieda manages to walk off with a few "testies." As busy as she appears to be, Frieda has time to give everybody her famous smile for which everyone knows her.

She has one great ambition, and that is to be a great artist some day. She plans to enter the Art Department of Boston University after leaving High School to further that ambition.

We're all familiar with her work so we're sure she will be a success. Good luck, Frieda.

"I wou'd do everything to serve a friend"

KATHRYN THERESA HENIGHAN

"Kitty" "Red" "Hank"

General Course

Musical Comedy 1-2; History Circle.

This is "Kitty," seemingly one of the quietest girls in the class—but don't judge a book by its cover! She's just as noisy as anyone when she gets started. When "Kitty" laughs, or rather roars at a joke, the four walls of the room resound with an echo.

"Hank" likes to study (in school) for every morning before school her book is opened on her desk, and she has a short answer for anyone bothering her.

"Hank" (short but sweet, and possessing "It" in large quantities) is a happy-go-lucky person and is never seen to become angry (much?). "Kitty" is often seen going home without books and lo—when we are deeply engrossed in study, she is—?

A command of "No talking, the last bell has rung" has to be repeated many times, because when "Kitty" starts a story, she has to finish it.

"Kitty" always attends the H. S. games, and is a great rooter. Oh yes! "Kitty" just loves dancing, and is seen at a number of our socials, having a wonderful time.

"Red" has a liking for skiing, swimming, and tennis. All of these we can class under one head, and the reason why?

"Kitty" intends to take up nursing at St. John's. The song, "I don't wanna get well," wi'l again be popular. Good-bye, "Red!" The class of '32 wishes you the best of luck.

"There will be of them that have left a name behind them"

ANDREW DAVID HORNE

"Andy" "Trader" "Hinky"

Technical Course

Football 1-2-3-4; Basketball 1-2-3; Baseball 1-2-3-4; Interclass Track 1-2-3; Tau Sigma; History Circle; Class Day Committee; Checking Committee; Glee Club 4.

All the power of Jove must have shone favorably on "Andy's" birthday. His talents are many and varied. "Andy's" athletic ability has put Clinton High on an exalted pedestal in the athletic world. "Andy" is our football and baseball captain, and the school's best player. His baseball ability is unmatched. He has the distinction of making the highest average in batting ever obtained by a student of the school. "Andy's" basketball ability is also well known, being manager and captain of the High School Independents.

"Andy" was also prominent in the social and academic departments of school. His quick wit, at times, surprised his teachers and classmates. In spite of such athletic prominence, "Andy," in school, was at all times quiet and unassuming and considerate of others. This attitude is commendable in any person—but is particularly so in "Andy's" case, where he has achieved and deserved such prominence in athletics.

"Andy's" athletic ability will eventually carry him into Columbia where he will doubtlessly display his wares.

The class of '32 wishes you the best of luck for a great success in future years, "Andy."

"A man of strife and a man of contention"

HOWARD MERTON HOWLAND

"Howie" "Merty"

Commercial Course

Tau Sigma 3; Photography Club; History Circle; Glee Club; German Club; Interclass Track 2.

Here we have Howard "Mertz" Howland, one of the quieter boys of our class. "Dizzy's" main asset is his ability to tend to his own affairs and keep out of other people's business.

He has an uncontrollable zeal for radios, and we warn you all not to be surprised if he startles the radio world some day with a new sort of invention.

It is doubtful if "Howie" ever became fatigued from too much study, but he has managed to get along without an overabundance of the undesired 60's or under.

As to the future, "Howie" has unveiled his plans to no one, not even his closest friends, so we cannot enlighten you as to his future whereabouts. One thing he does not need to enlighten us about, and that is his success for the future. The class is assured of that, "Howie," and its best wishes go with you.

"He goes from strength to strength"

CHESLEY WILLIAM PHILLIP HUTCHINS

"Hutch"

General Course

Debating Club 1; Assistant Manager Football 2-3; History Circle; Interclass Basketball 1.

Let us now introduce "Hutch," who is notorious for coming in late, (when he does come) and going out early. Although we use the word "introduce" in speaking of "Hutch," and although his presence in school is limited to two or three days a week, we are all well acquainted with him, and indeed it is a worthwhile acquaintance, as "Chet's" dry wit has oft-times turned a dull and dry recitation into a bedlam of uncontrollable noise and laughter.

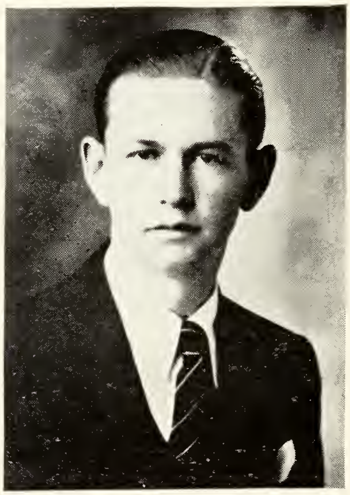
Although "Hutch" was never held up as a shining light and model student by his teachers, he has often displayed flashes of brilliance which have held us breathless with amazement.

He claims he has no interest in the opposite sex but we often wonder why he devotes so much time to that sleek, black hair. In this department, he is a good match for the silken locked "Nab" with whom he may be often found.

"Ches" is undecided as to the future, but we all know that his many abilities will pull him through.

Class of '32 is cheering for you, "Ches."

"I have had my labour for my travail"



CHESTER JOSEPH JAKUBOWICZ

"Chet" "Jackie"

General Course

History Circle.

It takes quite a while to know him, but when you do, it's worth while. "Chet" is modest, bright, and a good all around fellow. He is another of the gang that sticks to that age old motto, "it's brains that count—and not brawn." Of the first mentioned, "Chet" has an unusually large supply, but there is some doubt as to the question of how often he overtaxes them.

"Chet" is well liked by all his classmates—although they are somewhat in awe of his stoicism. But any one who was fortunate enough to penetrate beneath his mantle of serenity found a staunch friend and a true companion.

Although "Chet" has never taken an active part in the athletics of the school, he was always on the front line to cheer the boys on to victory.

We are sure "Chet" will accomplish something worth while in after life. Everyone likes him and everyone wishes him the best of luck.

"Hospitality sitting with gladness"

CORINNE LOUISE JEWETT
"Connie"
General Course
French Club 2; Eta Nu Gamma 2; History Circle 4.

"Connie" is one who believes that being on time is essential in most everything. She has a record of never being tardy through all of her school days—which is something many of us could never say of ourselves. Every morning finds her ready to start her school day at 7:45—bright and happy.

Her favorite subject is English—especially Shakesperian drama, and she knows Macbeth almost as well as Mr. Gordon himself.

Corinne has taken studying more seriously this year which results in testimonials each quarter from Mr. Cobb. She says that a good start makes the task half done and she believes that the last year of High School is the dawn of a career. Maybe this accounts for her interest in her studies.

Corinne has a keen sense of humor and gets a laugh out of everything that happens. (Even when she gets a call-down from Mr. Mitchell).

In order to fulfil! a life-long ambition our "Connie" is going in training to be a nurse.

The Class of '32 wishes you all the success and happiness in securing the letters R. N. after your name. Good-luck, "Connie."

"Universality of appeal"

NATALIE EDYTHE JOHNSON

"Tally" "Nat"

General Course

Eta Nu Gamma 3; Orchestra 3-4; French Club 4; History Circle; Senior Show; Interclass Dramatics 4.

Where's the spotlight? We'd like it right down here on this young lady. No sir, it won't scare her, not after being in the spotlight in the Senior and Interclass shows and what a hit she made in those productions!

Natalie left us our freshman year but returned to us last year. Yet Worcester still has a strong hold on her. We often wonder why?

"Nat" is our idea of being obliging. She has never refused to help any of us when we were in a jam. She certainly can plan a good time as all members of the French club and many outside can testify.

"Tally's" favorite saying seems to be, "Oh what a perfect time!" Without fail she has a gorgeous time at all our High School socials.

Could any one ever imagine "Nat" passing up a good time for an evening of hard study? She never would but she certainly gets her "testies" at our Assemblies.

"Nat" is going to learn to make people forget their ills in the Worcester City Hospital. We know anywhere "Nat" is, the place will always be "sunny." The class of '32 wishes you all the luck and good wishes.

"The cares of life do not bother me"

HELEN GERTRUDE JOHNSTONE

"Jinx"

General Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; French Club 2; History Circle; Musical Comedy 1-2-3; Junior Prom Committee; Reading Club 4.

Now we turn our pages to "Jinx," one of the most popular girls in our class.

Helen was never known to do much studying but she managed to get through High School in a very creditable fashion.

One of Helen's many accomplishments is elocution and this makes her an excellent conversationalist. She was always known to voice her opinion at the Eta Nu Gamma meetings, always debating on some subject or the other.

Oh, we mustn't forget that if one ambition stands out in Helen's career, it's cookery. Helen always seems to be experimenting with a cup of this and a pinch of that. The result? Well, those who have tasted these recipes can well assure you of the fact that she is a marvel at that type of work.

We understand that "Jinx" is quite a swimmer. Be that as it may—we do know that she regularly put in an appearance at a certain float last year.

She has her choice between cookery and nursing as her life career, but whatever road she takes, '32 wishes her "Bon Voyage."

"Her friends are many Her foes—are there any?"

MARGUERITE RITA KILCOYNE

"Peg" "Mag"

Normal Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Musical Comedy 2; Senior Show Committee; French Club 4; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

Now let us introduce "Peggie," although we admit she doesn't need it. If we were to write Marguerite up four years ago as a Freshman, we certainly would not know how to begin, because she was one of those quiet-looking girls but she certainly did change this shy attitude during her Junior year. Now, therefore, as a Senior, we can easily write her up without any hesitation.

It sure is a treat to be in a class with "Peg" for she certainly knows when silence is "too quiet for comfort," especially in chemistry, when supposed to be taking down those notes.

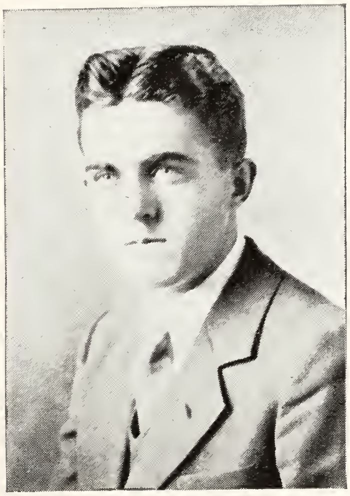
"Peggie" always takes her time and is often surprised to discover that she is 5 or 10 minutes late for school or for an appointment. But Marguerite is very apt in the art of giving "excuses."

"Mag" possesses a great disposition and her good nature makes her a great favorite among both sexes, though her signs of favoritism toward the opposite sex have never been shown.

"Marg" is undecided what line of work to take up, but she seems to favor the nursing profession, and may enter Massachusetts General Hospital.

We know she will succeed in whatever she takes up, and the Class of '32 wishes her the best of luck.

"WITH WORDS I govern men"



EDWARD ANTHONY KITTREDGE

"Kitty" "Ed" "Happy"

Commercial Course

Varsity Football 3-4; Interclass Basketball 1-2-4; Interclass Hockey 4; History Circle; Tau Sigma; French Club 2; Glee Club; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Show Committee; Field Day Committee; Interclass Baseball 1-2; Interclass Football 1-2.

"Ed" is a big husky lad whose main thought in life is to make everybody happy. If you should study him carefully you will find him to be very humorous. "Ed" is a real pal. "They don't come any better."

"Ed" was one of our real good Football players. He knew how to play and it was through no fault of his that his team lost, he always kept up his spirit until the game ended. "Ed" played good basketball in the Interclass games, being the star center for the Senior team.

In his studies, he came through whenever he had to, thus showing his scholastic ability. "Ed" could be pretty smart, if he cared to study but as I said before, he is content to make everyone happy.

"Ed" plans to enter Hebron Academy and we wish him the best of luck and hope that he will make a success of himself. We'll all be behind him encouraging him on. We wish you good luck, "Ed."

"A quiet exterior conceals much"

GEORGE HARRY LAMBROS

"Eagle" "Georgie"

General Course

Le Cercle Francais; History Circle; French Club 2; Tau Sigma; Interclass Football; Interclass Baseball.

Next on the list of notables comes George Lambros. Here's a boy who is popular among his classmates, not only because of his great personality, but also because of the frequency with which he distributes candy.

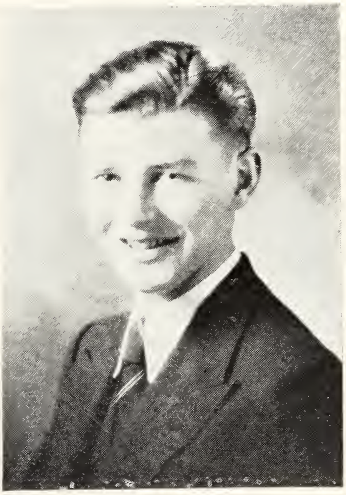
George is a good student when he studies, but he studies so infrequently that we often wonder if he is a good student for very long at a time. At any rate he knows what it is to get the coveted "85" and that's something.

"Eagle" may be often seen touring the town Saturday mornings looking for prospective customers, and according to his side of the story, he usually finds them. "Eagle" also, is a daily inhabitant of the Central Fire Station, and is a constant companion of "Nick," we suppose that associations down there is what keeps George constantly on the jump.

"Eagle" takes an active part in the social affairs of the school and is a faithful attendant at our athletic contests. He demonstrated his skill in the diamond and gridiron by participating in the interclass games in these sports.

George is undecided what work to take up but we know he will succeed and the best wishes of '32 go with him.

"If the end be well, all is well"



JOSEPH MICHAEL LAVELLE

"Echo"

College Course

Tau Sigma 3; French Club 4; History Circle 4; Glee Club 4; Interclass Basketball 4; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Show Committee; Junior Marshal.

Here is "Echo." a jokester if there ever was one. Keeping the French Club in tears of laughter is his favorite pastime.

Despite "Joe's" easy going manner, he is also an athlete of considerable ability. Being an exceptionally good hockey and basketball player, it was his misfortune that the school did not recognize these sports as varsity, or his name would have been in the lights, many times.

"Echo" has never received the complaints of neighbors, that while he is studying the light coming from his room has kept them up until the early hours of the morning. Despite this, "Joe" gets along well in his studies and is liked very well by all the teachers.

Whenever entertainment is going on, "Echo" is always there. His brilliant impersonation of Greta Garbo at the French Club social has kept him in demand.

"Joe" has not let us in on the secret of what his hopes and ambitions are— but we all wish you success, "Joe," in whatever you choose for your future career.

"How forcible are right words"

HYMEN LAVINE

"Hymie"

College Course

History Circle; Honorary Member of Historical Society; Junior Prom Committee.

Four years ago one September morn, a rather ambling figure shuffled noiselessly into the service wracked rooms of C. H. S. For the first few weeks this lad caused no particular disturbance but as time passed and the quarter ended, his school-mates began to sit up and take notice. For time and time again, the name of Hymen Lavine, above pictured, graced the honor roll of C. H. S. Not only graced it but was consistently among the first five names.

Hymen's activities were not wholly confined to studying and high-grades. A product of West Boylston, he could pitch a mean hay-fork and was often seen in the Clinton district riding around with "Sam" on the truck.

Although Hymen claims he is definitely opposed to the fair sex we often wonder about those long talks he engages in up in the Hall, supposedly over French or some such subjects.

Although his views for the future are vague, Hymen is one of those fellows who can't help but make good. The best wishes of '32 go with him.

"Knowledge comes but wisdom lingers"

SAMUEL LAVINE
"Sam"
Commercial Course
History Circle.

In the above photograph we see one of Boylston's representatives to Clinton High School. "Sam's" grading in the school subjects proves that he is worthy of being one of our number.

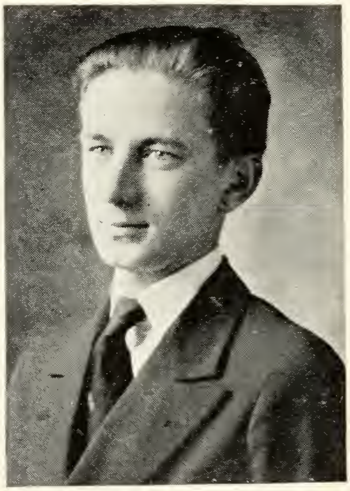
When we first came in contact with "Sam," he struck us as being a reserved sort of lad, but on further dealings with him we discovered that he mixes readily and has a deep interest in school affairs.

Although we don't see much of "Sam," his ability as a worker is readily acknowledged, as both he and his brother have often been seen hustling about Clinton when school is not in session.

"Sam's" activities out of school however are by no means confined to a truck, as often times he is the envy of his fellow classmates when he is observed touring our metropolis in his luxurious "straight eight."

"Sam" takes the commercial course and he is doing great at it. He has not, as yet, made up his mind what institution he will enter this fall, but the class of '32 knows he will succeed in his chosen profession. Good-bye "Sam" and Good Luck.

"Let knowledge grow from more to more"



RICHARD FERDINAND LEMKE

"Dick" "Winkie"

Commercial Course

History Circle.

Now we have Richard Lemke, the boy with the fine past and, we may assure you, an even finer future.

"Dick" was never outstanding in social functions, taking little interest in socials and less in the sex on whom the success of these socials naturally depended. He was one of the plugging type to whom everything comes by dint of hard study and perseverance.

He took an active part in all interclass sports, but seemed to derive little pleasure from any of them except skating. Oft' times when his presence was sought at the P. M. sessions, he could be seen rhythmically clicking off sweeping strides down at the Nashua River.

Although "Dick" does not claim to have gotten round shouldered carrying books home, we want it to be understood that flunks were few and far between, in his career.

"Dick" has been a true and staunch friend and, wherever he intends to go, the best wishes of '32 go with him.

"Honor lies in honest toil"

GRACE ESTELLE LINDSLEY

College Course

Honorary Member of the Clinton Historical Society; Photography Club.

It was not until our Junior year that Grace joined the ranks of '32. It took only a few weeks however, to recognize her admirable qualities. Exceptional not only from a scholastic viewpoint, but also in the manner in which she readily made friends.

To describe Grace adequately is, we think, impossible, and to praise her, we know, is wholly unnecessary. An observant, efficient, intellect together with a pronounced preference for the deeper wells of knowledge brought her exceptional scholastic prominence.

Keen of intellect, and possessed of a remarkable, retentive memory, she has never been obliged to worry over her studies.

Grace has not fully completed her plans for the future but we know she intends to go to college. We know Grace will be successful wherever she goes and the class of 1932 hopes that the best of life's gifts will be hers.

"Short and snappy, full of pep Always happy, was her 'rep'"

HELEN PHYLLIS LUSZCZ

College Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Le Cercle Francais; Historical Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Musical Comedy 4.

And this is Helen! The little miss who looks as though she just stepped out of a band box.

Those who have been in the same classes with Helen know that she is very clever at repartee.

Helen showed her fine acting ability and the power to adapt herself to a difficult role when she played the part of the French girl in the musical comedy.

There is something about Helen that we all admire and respect but we cannot seem to express it properly. She cannot be called too quiet, neither is she too gay; but she is one of the best-liked girls in the class.

Helen has not as yet fully completed her plans for the future but we know that what she does '32 will be proud to say she belonged to our class. Bon Voyage, Helen!

"The better known the greater is her worth appreciated"

CATHERINE BARBARA LONG

"Caddy" "Skip"

Commercial Course

Class Secretary 2-3-4; Basketball 1-2; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; History Circle; Photography Club; Honorary Member Clinton Historical Society; Musical Comedy 4; History Circle Play; Class Ring Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Reading Club; Class Day Committee 1-2-3-4; Class Book Staff.

How many mornings during our senior year did the question arise, "Where's Catherine?" The answer was always, "She's typing for Miss Harrity," for "Caddy" is one of the class' best typists.

She is a quiet, unassuming young lady in school with her mind seriously on her work, and is rewarded at the end of every quarter with her share of testimonials. Nevertheless, "Skip" is one of the most popular girls of her class, being secretary for 3 years. "Caddy's" interests are many and varied and she has that something that enables her to excel in most things she attempts. Scholastic ability is only one thing, but did you ever hear her play the piano, or see her dance, or swim or—but space is lacking to list all her accomplishments.

"Skip" was always a loyal supporter at all the games, and in past seasons was particularly interested in the Red Sox (socks). She also attended all social functions to the secret delight of many of the opposite sex.

"Skip" is interested in chemistry probably because she is planning to enter the Massachusetts General Hospital. But whatever road she takes, we of '32 are certain she will travel far. Loads of luck, "Caddy," your success will follow your endeavors.

"'Tis well to be honest and true"

STEPHANIE BARBARA MACORA

"Babs" "Bob"

College Course

French Club 2; Basketball 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; French Club 4; History Circle 4; Secretary of "Le Cercle Francais"; Senior Show Committee.

"Babs," as she is better known to her friends, is one of Clinton High's most cheerful students. Her giggles may be heard almost any time echoing thru the building. Her sunny disposition has also won her many friends.

Her most striking characteristics are her dimples and her brown eyes, and these characteristics have made her charming in the eyes of the opposite sex. She is one of the brightest of the senior girls and is often heard translating French for her classmates.

She is also one of the most popular girls; good student, good pal, good looking, good everything.

Barbara is a very good tennis player and can often be seen playing on the court.

Although she has only participated in basketball she has always been a staunch supporter of all sports.

Her ambition in life is to be a school ma'am and we envy her pupils. We know you'll succeed "Babs," so here's wishing you luck.

"Good sense which only is the gift of heart
And tho' no science, fairly worth the seven!"

JOSEPH JOHN MASSALSKI

"Joe"

Technical Course

French Club 2; History Circle.

You now see one of the smart men of our class. He is one of the Seniors who is looked upon with pride by the lower classmen. "Joe" has achieved quite a student record, and many are the times he is overwhelmed by his classmates asking to be helped in this and that. And the testimonials just fall in his arms!

A modest, quiet and retiring young fellow is "Joe," but you can't always tell about these quiet ones. He is not a timid soul, but one who evades the limelight, attending to his own affairs, and interfering with no one else.

The time is yet to come when "Joe" doesn't know his lessons, and he can always be depended upon to answer a question (some way or other) that puzzles other classmates. "Joe" conquers all tests that come his way with ease and then looks around for "new worlds to conquer."

Of course, like others, "Joe" has a pet subject, and it is Chemistry, with Physics running a close second. In fact, "Joe" is called "Einstein" by his Chemistry classmates, but what "Joe's" theories are is for us to guess.

"Joe" is undecided what he will do next year, but whatever course he follows, we all know he will succeed. Good-by, "Joe"—and the best of luck from good old '32.

"All things come round to her, who will but wait"

LEONA ANNA McDONALD

"Chick"

College Course

French Club 4; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

And now we turn the pages to Leona—one of the happy-go-lucky members of our class. Leona is never seen without her sunny smile and cheerful disposition. She is always ready to lend a helping hand and is a true and loyal friend at all times.

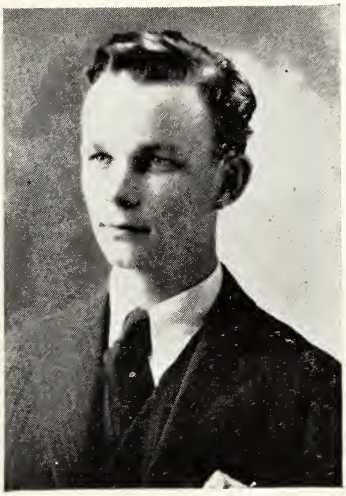
"Chick" may appear rather quiet and reserved to those outside her circle, but her best friends know she is full of fun and is always good company. She always manages to get good marks but books have no hold on her when it comes to a good time. We often wonder how she does it and have decided it must be a gift.

"Mac" is always present at all the High School games, rooting for dear old Clinton High and is a very ardent fan. She also appears at all High School socials and always has a good time. No matter where "Chick" goes she is always accompanied by her chum "Toolie" and vice versa.

Leona is one of those girls who believes in the old saying, "you're only young once," and enjoys herself everywhere. She is very fond of sports and takes an active part in them, especially tennis and swimming.

Leona intends to enter the nursing profession and we know she will be a great success. The class of '32 extends to her best wishes for success in her chosen profession. We will never forget you, "Chick."

"He knew what's what"



THOMAS EDWARD McDONALD

"Pip" "Tommy"

College Course

Tau Sigma; President of History Circle; Interclass Dramatics 1-4; Senior Show; Washington Pageant; Glee Club; Interclass Football 1; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Assistant Advertising Manager of Class Book.

Here we have "Tommy" who is President of our History Circle. He has made the Circle one of the most successful that this school has ever known. We can see that he is very popular with his classmates by the fact that he won by a substantial majority. "Tommy's" great popularity may be attributed to the fact that he always has a smile for everybody and is able to take a joke.

"Pip" can be seen at all our school socials, being well known for his terpsichorian ability and also for his ability as a thespian. He has been in all our class shows and his characterization of James Monroe in the pageant was really professional.

He may be seen in good weather with his golf clubs headed for the golf links in Bolton. He is one of the best golfers at the links and we know a couple of teachers who will vouch for this fact.

He is quite an athlete, having played Interclass football, baseball, and basketball in his freshman year, but, because of lack of weight, did not participate in the varsity sports. On account of that we think that the school lost a valuable player.

"Tommy" is planning to take up dentistry at the University of Maryland and we all wish him the best of luck.

AUSTIN ALOYSIUS McGRAIL

"Allie" "Ayye"

General Course

Debating Club 1; French Club 2; Tau Sigma 3; Glee Club 4; History Circle; Interclass Basketball 4; Interclass Hockey 4; Senior Show; Washington Pageant; Interclass Dramatics 4; Musical Comedy 1-2-3-4; Football 3-4.

Just listen to that uncontrollable laughter down in the front of the hall!! You don't know who that is? Why there is only one person from whom such a spasm can come, and his name is "Allie" McGrail.

"Allie" is one of the most popular fellows in the class of '32—among both sexes, if we may add. His ability to mix in and make himself at home has established him in the hearts of all his classmates.

"Allie's" dramatic ability is proved by noting the number of shows in which he participated from his freshman to his senior year. His performances were always of the highest quality.

There would be something lacking if we didn't mention his beautiful baritone voice, which both the musical comedies and Boys' Glee Club used to good advantage.

On the gridiron, he excelled at tackle for two years and win or lose, "Allie" was in there with that never-say-die spirit to the final whistle.

The College of Saint Anslem is destined to greet our merry classmate and no matter what vocation in life he sets himself to conquer, he can rest assured that the whole-hearted wishes of '32 are with him to the end.

"True she is as she hath prov'd herself"

ANNA PATRICIA MITCHELL

"Mitch" "Lula" "Mush"

Normal Course

History Circle; French Club 2; Eta Nu Gamma; Musical Comedy 1-2.

Anna is a popular member of our honorable graduating class and she certainly can hold her own in a crowd—especially in the line of talking.

"Mitch" is very often seen rolling (jouncing) along in "Our car" on a sunny afternoon or a warm evening. In the evening she's not always in "their car"—but there is more than one "tin-can" on the road.

"The car" never participated in carrying home those "ol" testies but we like to think that, perhaps, it was too heavy a load for the car to carry.

"Lula" is never seen without her shadows "Kit" and "Totch," maybe she has a fear of those so-called "kidnappers."

"Mush" takes a special interest in our social activities and received a History Circle Pin to prove it. Of course we never see the pin—maybe she has a certain sweater to attach it to. Oh my!

Anna is heading for Normal School next year. Lots of luck, Anna. We know you're on the road to success.

"It is quiet people who accomplish much"

BEATRICE ANNA MORAN

"Bea"

General Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

Here we have "Bea" Moran, (accent on the second syllable of "Moran," please), and with her, that little giggle. Who doesn't know that cute laugh that is solely "Bea's?" Just as I thought, none, for that really is a famous giggle.

"Bea" is a good example for that saying, "good things come in small packages." She is a happy classmate who won many friends by her ready smile and good nature.

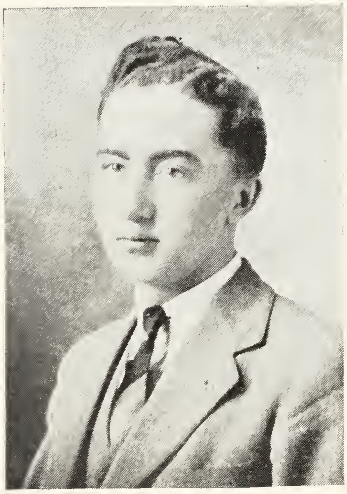
Although "Bea" has not participated in any of our dramatics, there was never a show or dance complete without her and her friend, Mary. "We're only young once," they say, and they surely carry out this old saying. Can we blame them? I should say not.

There aren't many of us who have a way of letting people know we're coming the same as "Bea" has. She owns a dog "Rex." "Rex" comes to school in the morning and never misses a P. M. when "Bea" has any, which are few and far between.

There is some hospital in Massachusetts that is to be favored by "Bea's" presence as she is determined on being a nurse, and we're all certain those patients are sure to get well when they have "Bea" as an attendant.

"Be good," "Bea," and lots of luck from '32.

"A young man that blushes is better than one who turns pale"



MARK MICHAEL MORAN

"Marcus"

College Course

Debating Club 1; Tau Sigma; History Circle; Le Cercle Francais; Glee Club; Musical Comedy 1.

To the casual observer, Mark is quiet and reserved, but we who have known him for four years are positive this conclusion is wrong.

Mark works at Aubuchon's Hardware and that accounts for the large patronage which has spelled prosperity. If you are looking for service with a smile, you know where to get it.

Although Mark spent much time working he was often seen burning the midnight oil and was always prepared to recite.

"Curly" was always on hand at class affairs, and was always ready to work toward any success the class might attempt to accomplish. He seldom misses a social and was often seen with a certain very popular member of the class.

As to the future;—Mark is due at Tuft's in the fall with his pal "Fran" where they both intend to study dentistry. Farewell, old chap. Best wishes from '32.

MICHAEL JOSEPH MORRISSON

"Pickets" "Bick"

College Course

Tau Sigma; Glee Club; French Club 2-4; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Interclass Basketball; Junior Marshal; Checking Committee.

As we turn page after page, we finally come to him for whom we have been waiting with bated breath. "Joe" Morrisson, 32's super salesman, the lad whose winning smile and "personality plus" overcome the sales resistance of even the most reticent buyers.

Although the opposite sex holds little or no interest for "Pickets," his curly golden locks and smiling blue eyes have the "femmes" running around in circles. Will we ever forget "Pick's" crashing of the social world and his first attempt to dance? After taking a few stumbling steps, "Joe", with his ears a deep scarlet, gave up in disgust, stating that the majority of girls had two left feet, and along with that, danced left-handed. Shortly afterward however "Pick" came back to take dancing by storm and add another achievement?—to his already long list.

His ability as a plugger is surpassed by no one, and the medal he won for best camper a few summers ago, well testifies that fact.

"Pick" has already conquered the business world on a minor scale, and we have no doubt in his ability to do so again on a larger scale.

His next stop is Holy Cross College where his many and various abilities will stand him in good stead. Well, carry on, "Joe," '32 is cheering for you.

“ ’Tis well to be merry and wise”

ANNA ELIZABETH MURPHY

“Thorn” “Iggy” “Ann”

Commercial Course

History Circle.

We now turn our gaze upon our little classmate “Ann,” one who is so blithe in speech. “Ann” is one of our quiet girls, that is, inside school, but once that she is out you can well be assured that “Ann” has her share of good times especially when she visits certain offices.

She does not believe in burning the midnight oil but always manages to get along in her studies. On sunny days “Murph” would be seen strolling down the street acting as nurse-maid which was a most enjoyable task for her.

All who know ‘Ann” are well acquainted with her sunny disposition and cheery smile.

“Ann” intends to take up nursing but her destination is quite indefinite at present. We are aware of the fact, however, that wherever she goes, she will be a success and so we’ll say Good Luck, Anna.

"Wisdom shall die with you"

JOHN JOSEPH MURPHY

"Murf" "Big Jack"

College Course

Interclass Dramatics 2; History Circle; Le Cercle Francais; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Varsity Football 4; Interclass Football 2; Debating Club 1-2; Interclass Basketball 2; Tau Sigma; Glee Club 4; Checking Committee.

In our Freshman year we didn't hear much about him. While in our Sophomore year he was noted for his ability to keep quiet and attend to his own affairs. Then in our Junior year "Murph" gained fame by means of his ability to attain that old "85." The way "Murph" used to "cop" those testies sure had us all bewildered.

But to think of John merely as a student is to overlook his greatest claim to our respect, for his sincerity, loyalty, and constant humor make him a priceless friend.

It certainly would be a shame if we were to keep you in the dark concerning John's athletic abilities. In his Senior year, "Murph" responded to the call for candidates with the other football aspirants. His earnest efforts were rewarded by his making the squad—and "Murph" certainly did put his heart into the game.

John intends to increase his scope of knowledge at Holy Cross College. His ability to do so is vouched for by his friends and classmates. Good luck—John.

"Her ready wit and cheery smile Proclaimed to all a friend worthwhile"

MARY ELIZABETH MURPHY

"Betti"

College Course

Vice-President French Club 2; Eta Nu Gamma; Interclass Dramatics 2-3; Musical Comedy 3-4; French Club 4; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Washington Pageant; Reading Club; Honorary Member of Historical Society; Senior Show.

When one hears melodious music coming from Room 8 when there is a French Club social, one can picture without much effort Mary's fingers tripping gracefully over the ivories. The success of many of our High School Socials has been due to the ever willing and much enjoyed music that Mary renders to us.

And not only on that account was Mary one of the most popular girls in our school. She took part in the Interclass Dramatics and the Senior Show and proved her excellent dramatic ability.

A glance at Mary's activity record above will show that Mary was one of the real workers of the class.

We also find her name on the testimonial list every quarter. So you see for all of Mary's social activities she always finds time for her studies.

Mary sure knows her 'What to do and When," never lacking knowledge of what to say or do just at the right time. She spends a lot of her time in Worcester, we wonder why!

Mary plans to further her studies at Miss Lesley's School at Cambridge, after she leaves Clinton High, we sincerely wish her success in all of her future endeavors.

"Ed" "Eddie" "Jinx"

Normal Course

Senior Show; Business Manager Class Book; Varsity Football 1-2; History Circle; Junior Marshal; Musical Comedy 3-4; Junior Prom Committee; Interclass Basketball 4; Tau Sigma 3; Washington Pageant; Interclass Dramatics 3; Stage Manager 4; Glee Club.

Aha! Here he is, "Ed" Noonan, the Business Manager of our Class Book. "Eddie" may be seen always with his two pals walking around the school.

Just look at "Ed" and you will understand why he is one of the most popular boys of "32." "Ed" fits strong with the ladies and never fails to attend the school dances, socials, etc.

In his Junior year "Jinx" decided to go out for dramatics and made a great hit before the footlights.

"Ed" never cared much for studying and he was never known to have burned the midnight oil but when those little white cards came out monthly, his name was among the missing.

"Jinx" also showed his ability as a singer in our Minstrel Shows. Oh yes, and lest we forget, he was some football player, too.

"Ed" has decided to further his studies at the University of Alabama and with you, "Ed," goes the best wishes of your classmates.

RITA AGNES O'CONNELL

"Shrimp"

Commercial Course

Hiking Club 1; French Club 2; Eta Nu Gamma; Basketball 2; History Circle.

In the first place, Rita has brains; in the second, she knows how to use them; and third, she is not afraid to use them. Consequently she is a very clever girl, especially in her athletic ability. Who could forget her who has once seen her in a game of basketball? She sure can pass the ball and always has an eagle eye for the baskets.

Rita is popularly known as "Ceres" among the Grangers, where she shines especially with one male factor there. We all remember that on Saint Mihiel day, when all the school had to trudge wearily in the parade, she rode in state.

Rita shines in Chemistry but when it came to tests, she certainly could hand in excuses.

Her plans are to become a nurse and we know by the amount of friends she has at dear old C. H. S., she won't have any trouble making friends in the future.

Adieu, Rita, best wishes of '32 go with you.

"He lives long that lives well"

JOSEPH MARTIN O'DONNELL

"Joe" "OD"

General Course

Interclass Basketball 4; Assistant Manager Varsity Football 4; French Club 4; History Circle 4; Musical Comedy 1-2-3; Glee Club.

No one has to be introduced to "Joe" for he has a host of friends.

"Joe" should have graduated a few years ago but he left school. He came back last year and joined our class, so what was their loss was certainly our gain.

"Joe" was a member of nearly all the clubs in school, being prominent in both the History Circle and the French Club. Can any one ever forget the costume he wore to the History Circle "Poverty Dance?"

"Joe" was one of the shining lights in Interclass basketball. He never failed to cage his share of the baskets. In the first game with the Juniors he caged a sensational basket from beyond the middle of the floor, which helped to pull the Seniors out of a tough spot.

"Joe" can often be seen hurrying around town in that Ford coupe and as long as the gas holds out, he'll never be late in getting wherever he's going.

He hasn't decided what he's going to do next year but whatever it is the class of '32 wishes him the best of luck.

VERONICA SCOTT O'DONNELL

"Vera" "Vee"

Commercial Course

Debating Club 1; Musical Comedy 1; History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Junior Prom Committee.

"All talking stopped?" Does that mean anything to "Vera?" We should say not. For her size, she always manages to speak her mind, and very often one sees her tripping gaily to school after the old tardy bell showing a lot of her "pep."

"Vee" turns out for all sports and, of course, her favorite is football—we often wonder which member of the squad deserves all the attention that "Vee" showers on him, or rather shouts at him, during the game.

The tallow candle wasn't burnt very low by "Vee," but she always managed to secure a few testies. "Vee" and "Elie" have a habit of grabbing free heat, and they may be seen at any time over at the C. P. L. Ask "Vee" and "Elie" about it —wonder if they'd tell?

Forsythe's Dental School claims Vera next fall and with her goes the best wishes of '32.

"Happy am I, from Care I'm free"

PAUL JOSEPH O'GRADY

"Nab"

Commercial Course

History Circle; Glee Club; Interclass Football 2; Interclass Hockey 4; Interclass Basketball 4; Senior Show Committee; French Club.

On first glance at the above picture, we are apt to overlook him on account of his quiet and implacable manner. But a sort of irresistible force draws us back and presto, we have immediately gained a well worth while acquaintance.

"Nab" has a reputation for being a woman hater, and probably this is so. But when you have seen him (as a few of his intimate friends have) glide nonchalantly and gracefully across the dance floor, you will then abandon all such ideas.

By the way, have you noticed the color of "Nab's" so perfectly arranged hair? It is rather light but its hue has not been acquired by an overabundance of study. This fact is all the more amazing, when we glance through his marks and note the large number of certificate grades. And even more amazing is that these marks are in his "tough" subjects.

Outside of his social life, which is too extensive to go into deeply, "Nab" indulges a great deal in sports. He has a mania for hockey, but it is on the tennis court that we can fully appreciate the innumerable talents that this lad possesses. Many are the times that Paul has vanquished some of his larger and more formidable opponents with his mental abilities which Paul declares far superior to those of brawn.

Paul's abilities are many and various, and wherever he goes our best wishes go with him.

MARY JOSEPHINE O'MALLEY

"Mare" "Joie"

General Course

History Circle 4; French Club 4; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Ticket Committee—Junior Prom 3; Musical Comedy 1-2.

Well, well, if it isn't Mary. But who would ever recognize this seemingly demure little miss as Mary, for she is anything but demure. Mary always kept our class in good humor for no one ever saw Mary without a cheerful smile on her face. Mary doesn't believe in studying too hard, but nevertheless she always succeeds in passing.

Mary is fond of sports and could usually be found at all High School games accompanied by her other half-"Bes."

"Patience is a virtue," is another statement which can be applied to Mary. Few of us have ever seen her angry or flustered. This is one of the qualities which make Mary a valuable, as well as a good friend to have.

Mary's plans for the future are rather vague, at least she's keeping them a secret from us. However she does expect to be either a nurse or a stenographer. We are willing to make a guess that perhaps she will become a dietitian. Who knows? "Time alone will tell" are her words and we know that time will also bring her success.

CLARA AGNES O'TOOLE

"Claire"

College Course

Interclass Track 1; Girls' Basketball 1-2; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Show Committee; French Club 4; History Circle 4.

When you first rest your gaze on Clara, she will impress you as being rather a quiet girl, but just rest your gaze a little longer and change your mind.

Her good humor, smiling countenance, ready wit, and the ability to help you in times of trouble wins for "Claire" a great many friends.

Because of the number of testies Clara has managed to secure during her High School career, you would be led to believe that she is a real studious girl, but not as any of her intimate friends can tell you.

Most of "Claire's" time is taken up with sports, and you can rest assured that she is good at all of them.

Clara has the intention of becoming a "school marm." and of entering Fitchburg Normal. And we all know that if she continues in the future as she has done in the past, she can't help but be a success. Best of luck, Clara.

Football 1-2-3; Co-Captain 4; Baseball 1-2-3; Co-Captain 4; Basketball 1-2; Interclass Hockey Team; Class Track; Vice-President History Circle; Treasurer Tau Sigma; French Club 2; Glee Club; Interclass Dramatics Stage Manager 3; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Show Committee; Junior Marshal; Honorary Member Clinton Historical Society.

Well folks, here he is, the boy with the winning smile, the pride of the "Naval Academy," and our star all around athlete.

Most of "Eddie's" time is spent in athletics where he is one of our most versatile football stars, one of our star basketball guards, one of the heaviest hitters of our diamond, and as for hockey 'Nuff-sed.

"Eddie" was co-captain of football and baseball; led the class basketball and hockey teams, and also held office in several clubs.

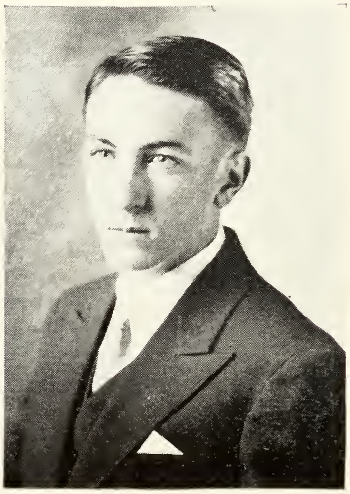
In class, "Ed's" humor and "reg'lar feller" spirit have made him a favorite with the students and faculty. He has great class spirit and has displayed it on several occasions memorable to members of the other classes.

"Ed's" social activities are many, and at all ballrooms he is right in the midst of things. He is certainly popular with the fair sex.

"Eddie's" next stop may be Niagara University where we know he will be a success.

Good luck, "Eddie."

"I am sure Care's an enemy to life"



FREDERICK JOSEPH O'TOOLE

"Fred" "Affy" "Sphinky"

College Course

History Circle; French Club 2; Junior Prom Committee; Interclass Basketball 4; Interclass Hockey.

When, in time to come, past remembrances will be shaded by passing years, the memory of "Fred" will be as clear as ever. His private brand of humor gained for him the best friends, and his friends consist of the whole class. "Sphinky" has established his prowess in all the branches of sportdom, especially in hockey and baseball.

"Fred" hails from Duck Harbor and has certainly added many laurels to the "Naval Academy."

While "Affy" could never be called studious, he never failed to attain sufficient grade to make us wonder "how he did it." What "Freddie" doesn't know about French can be written on your thumb nail. (Ask Miss Kerrigan to tell another). "Fred" will be remembered by all because of his merrymaking in the hall every recess. "Sphinky" did not make any varsity team, but his work was worthy of note in Interclass hockey and basketball.

"Fred" is undecided what college will be honored with his presence, but the wishes of the whole class are with him.

"Pray you now, forget and forgive"

MARY RITA O'TOOLE

"Mayre" "Mae"

Commercial Course

Musical Comedy 1-2; History Circle; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3.

Now we present 'Mae" seemingly the quietest girl in the class—but don't judge a book by its cover.

When one knows "Mae," they find her to be the friendly and unassuming sort of person that we all like, and not at all the quiet person one imagines at a glance.

"Mae" possesses a quiet sense of humor which is in evidence particularly in Period "D" when the dryly comical remarks of a certain teacher show their effect on her by the funny little quirk which makes its appearance about her mouth when she is amused.

"Mae" never seems to be in a hurry except perhaps, in the morning to cheat the tardy bell of a victim. She seems to take life easy, especially in the line of study but she manages to acquire blue marks, and those alone, on her report.

Because of these qualities, we feel sure that if "Mae" has definitely decided to enter Bay Path as she intends, she will make a success of it.

Best of luck to you, "Mae."

"My tongue is the pen of a ready writer"

RITA MARGARET O'TOOLE

"Ree" "Toolie"

General Course

Eta Nu Gamma; Musical Comedy 1-2.

Rita honored us with her presence this year and what a welcomed addition.

"Ree" keeps the mail man busy (and we don't mean those famous C. H. S. calling cards which most of us are acquainted with).

Outside school, Rita excels in the terpsichorean art, of course, this is only one reason for her extreme popularity. Who would resist those eyes and her winning smile?

"Ree" is one of the more fortunate girls in our class. And what girl does not breath a sigh of envy when "Ree" breezes by with that beautiful raccoon.

It has been rumored that our Rita is quite a cook. She must believe in the sweet old-fashioned method of capturing her man.

"Ree's" destination is Leslie's Exclusive Cooking School. Don't we wish we were Leslie. Clinton's loss is Leslie's gain. Best of luck, Rita. C. H. S. is cheering for you.

"Life is a jest, and all things show it,

DANIEL JAMES PAUL

"Yeats" "Danny"

Normal Course

French Club; History Circle; Tau Sigma; Glee Club; Athletic Council; Senior Show; Washington Pageant; Football 2; Baseball 2; Basketball 2; Manager Football 4; Class Treasurer 3-4; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Ring Committee 3; Interclass Football 1; Class Book Staff; Rotary Club Guest.

We now have in the limelight the most diminutive (according to stature) member of our class. But don't jump at conclusions, and don't form any false opinions concerning "Danny," because the old saying "T. N. T. comes in small quantities" may be truly applied in his case. As a proof of this, we can take into consideration "Danny's" ability as an athlete, being a letter man in the three varsity sports, football, baseball and basketball.

"Danny" received a singular honor during his Senior year by being chosen from the whole student body of this school as its representative on the newly formed Athletic Council. At its meetings he could always be depended upon to stand up for the student body.

"Danny" is also a man of banking instincts and is burdened with the trustworthy duty of caring for the class funds.

His versatility also tends toward the floors of the well known dance palaces, where "Yeat's" singular shuffle has made him ever so popular with the girls.

"Danny" has gained for himself a host of friends in High School both among the faculty and student body. Their well wishes for success go with him to Massachusetts State where he plans to enroll next fall.

"Nay, I shall ne'er be aware of mine own wit

JOSEPH THOMAS PETERS

"Waleo" "Joe"

General Course

History Circle; French Club 4; Assistant Manager Football 4; Interclass Basketball 4; Glee Club; Tau Sigma; Interclass Hockey 3-4; Junior Prom Committee; Musical Comedy 2-3.

Well! Well! Well! One glance at the smiling countenance above brings back to memory all the happy incidents of four years of school life. The class of thirty-two had in its midst a varied group of jokesters, but none of these compared with "Waleo." He was in a class by himself. Many are the times he pulled himself out of a tough position and roused a whole class to rollicking laughter with his witty remarks.

During his first two years in school "Waleo" seemed destined to join the immortals—"Adverse to Women"—but all great men fall and "Joe" weakened at a critical point. Thus, it was to the amazement of all, that "Waleo"—the school's wild rough "Acre-ite" appeared at our Junior and Senior socials, and displayed a brand of hot-footing it with the nonchalance that is so characteristic of him on all occasions.

One of the high lights of "Waleo's" school career, aside from his debut in the social world, was his connection with school sports. He was one of the mainstays on the class hockey team, and we cannot say enough about his activities on the football field. Often we have seen him dash madly over the last white marker of the gridiron—(with the water-pail in his hand) to the rescue of his team.

"Joe" is not certain as to the future, but whatever path of life you take, "Joe," we know you will be a success. Goodbye and good luck.

MARGUERITE ANNE PHILBIN

"Peggy"

College Course

French Club 2; Interclass Dramatics; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Senior Show; Honorary Member of Historical Society.

One day four years ago last September, a quiet serious looking girl entered the High School and stood amazed at the vastness of the huge building which she had entered. But soon she became very well acquainted with school, faculty, and classmates. Her brilliance in English soon manifested itself and we all were amazed at the rapidity with which Marguerite answered Miss McNab's questions.

The years passed and we came more in contact with our beloved "Peg." We realized that this brilliance did not alone pertain to English. She excelled in every subject and her sketches of well-known figures had us in stitches.

Her brilliance soon spread to other fields and she portrayed much talent in dramatics. We shall never forget "Peg" as the Irish maid who was always "belittlin'" the Chinese Cook.

Indeed with so many talents we expect to hear much of "Peg" in later years. She intends to go to Framingham Normal and when you hear of our noted Marguerite, you shall know it is little "Meg" who so quietly entered our vast High School four years ago.

JAMES EDWARD QUEENEY

"Jim"

General Course

"Jim" is another of those quiet, good-natured, reserved chaps whom everybody likes. Did anyone ever see "Jim" when his temper was the least bit ruffled? We don't think so, but woe be to him who does ruffle it.

"Jim" is just one more of the bunch who sticks to the old password, "Persevere." "Jim's" perseverance and size won for him a position on the football squad during his junior year.

Although he never taxed himself with study, "Jim" usually managed to pull through with his rating fairly high on the list. And although his homeward progress was usually unencumbered with such burdensome articles as books, he came out with some very clever answers in class.

"Jim's" straightforwardness and winning personality have won for him a host of friends in Clinton High School and we know they will wherever he goes. He was ever a reliant friend, a true pal and a steady classmate. In fact, the summing up of his four years in C. H. S. could be contained in a single sentence: "He was one good sport."

The class of 1932 extends to "Jim" its sincerest wishes for success.

"Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you"

JOHN THOMAS RUANE

"Cuzzy"

College Course

President of French Club 4; Tau Sigma 3; Glee Club 4; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Honorary Member Clinton Historical Society; Class Book Staff; Junior Marshal.

Greetings, People! Introducing John Ruane, one of the most prominent and popular members of 1932's graduating class.

John was into all the activities of the various school clubs. He was president of the French Club, a man worthy of the honor, and a worker worthy of the title; again he was continually a member of the History Circle's many committees.

"Johnny" was everybody's friend. He had a hobby of changing current numbers and sayings into matters dealing with his classes. Chemistry seemed to be his favorite subject.

Another of "Cuzzy's" many accomplishments was dancing. Waltzing a specialty. He also had a weakness for cemeteries and tombstones but was strong for tennis, long hikes, bowling and skating.

"Cuzzy" liked to entertain and did so quite frequently either at his home in the Acre, or at Rocky Pond in his summer cottage, where many the fine week-end or quarter vacation have been spent with many pleasant memories.

John has not decided what he will do after graduating but we know whatever it may be, John's wit and humor as well as his fine sense of judgment will pull him through.

ROSE ANNA MARY SCHOEPFER

"Rosie" "Cato" "Sheppy"

Normal Course

Debating Club 1; Eta Nu Gamma 2; French Club 2; Girls' Interclass Basketball Team 1-2; Musical Comedy 1-2-3; History Circle.

We don't believe in that proverb "Good things come in small packages" when we gaze at "Rosie." "Sheppy" can be seen every morning at 7.59 (or after) tripping up the Hall stairs—panting for breath.

"Cato" is very studious at times, which is proved by the many books that take their regular position in her school bag. "To study or not to study"—that's the question, and judging from the good marks that find themselves on Rose's report card—we can rest assured that she answers this question in the affirmative.

We found out in our freshman year, after Rose had joined the Debating Team, that she was an excellent orator. Any side who had Rose to argue the fine points was sure of winning.

Rose is the type of girl who takes life as it comes and often with her spontaneous wit did she carry on a clever repartee, and make many otherwise dull classes enjoyable.

"Rosie" has not fully decided what course she intends to pursue, but whatever profession she chooses, we know with her power to make friends, her good humor, and ability, will lead her far, and the class of '32 wishes her success and happiness.

Musical Comedy; French Club 2-4; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle 4; Assistant Editor "Le Petit Journal"; Honorary Member Historical Society; Debating Club 1-2.

"Roses are blooming in Picardy"—well who cares—we have our Rose with us at all times—we don't ever have to wait for June to roll round.

Rose was always a very quiet and demure young lady—will Miss Kerrigan ever forget her or should I say us? Even though she was slightly boisterous at times, it wasn't just to let us know she was still with us, for more recesses than one; a huddle could be seen around Rose's desk with Nancy, Marguerite, etc., diligently doing their "La Tulipe Noire." Rose is still broadcasting, you know she does "A la Winchell" for the French Club Newspaper.

She always has her smile and is always ready to help a friend in need, and such a friend is a friend indeed.

Rose plans to enter Pembroke College where she is going to take up journalism. We hope she continues to win friends with her smile and her high standing in her studies as she has done with us. We wish you best of luck, Rose, in whatever field you enter.

SARAH TILLIE SCHANBERG

"Sally"

Commercial Course

Eta Nu Gamma 2; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Honorary Member of the Clinton Historical Society.

Once upon a time, as the story goes, there entered through our front portals, a young lady possessing long curls and a demure expression. But that was a long time ago, and we still have with us our dear "Sally" minus long curls which have changed to trim, wavy hair, minus demureness, and plus ability to pick a bone or two with Mr. Comiskey—and then her activities in Period F!

But seriously Sarah is one of the few girls who manages to get her homework done when necessary, and has plenty of time to go out. And indeed she does her homework faithfully as we can see in U. S. When Mr. McGrail calls on a poor, erring, youngster, who thought more about a dance than his History assignment, up goes Sarah's hand—the knowledge at the tip of her tongue.

When questioned about her future life, "Sally" smilingly says she is going to work. '32 knows that whatever she chooses to make her goal, with her integrity and skill, she will arrive there successfully. The best of luck from the Class of 1932, Sarah.

"Is not true leisure one with true toil?"

MARY FRANCES SHUSTA

"Mae" "Nancy"

Commercial Course

Musical Comedy 1; French Club 2; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Show Committee; French Club 4; History Circle.

Our first impression of Mary would rate her as a quiet, studious, reserved, angelic sort of person, but after a short acquaintance we are assured that we were all wrong.

Up in the back of the hall at recess, Mary loses all her quietness and reserve and becomes very voluble—talking about everything both inside and outside of school.

But Mary usually manages to get her homework done and is very seldom caught unawares—O beautiful state of mind! Indeed when we remember her brilliance in French II, it would be no surprise to hear that she has become a French interpreter.

Seriously, tho'—If "Mae's" expectation comes true, she will enter Bay Path College next year. We are sure that with her charming personality, along with her other attributes, she will succeed in the business world—and the best wishes of 1932 go with her.

"Her smile is sweetened by her gravity"

HELEN ANN STARR

Normal Course

Eta Nu Gamma 3; History Circle 4; Secretary German Club 4.

Of course you simply must meet that other element that makes up the "Starr-Heinold" compound—Miss Helen Ann Magdalen Starr.

She is quite sophisticated and usually wears an air of complete boredom; but recently we note a soft dreamy look in her left satellite.

To be more personal, she simply loves peaches with oodles 'n oodles of marshmallow, which, unfortunately for her, nearly sealed her doom. This craving precipitated her most pleasant journey to the Clinton Hospital where she meekly submitted to having her appendix extracted. But, as Frieda says—"Nothing can kill her." Everything turned out "so-so."

One can see her making Chestnut Hill on high while the town clock is merrily chiming eight, on any school day. By such strenuous exercising in the morning she manages to control her avoirdupois very nicely.

As is the way of most artists, Helen is quite tempermental, going to extremes of moods. On the other hand she is very generous and if caught in one of these frequent moods will certainly lend you a frock for "that dance."

Yes, Helen is going to study art at Boston University's Art Department. We're all sure that she'll be a tremendous success and we all wish her the best of luck in her chosen profession.

"A true friend is forever a friend"

HELEN BERNICE STARR

"Starr"

Commercial Course

Eta Nu Gamma 3; Basketball 1-2; Track 1-2; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Photography Club 4.

Here we find a girl that goes in for athletics in a big way. Her ability in sports is varied, but we remember her best as one of the basketball team's most prominent members and as a member of her class track team.

Helen may look very quiet at first glance but it doesn't take much to see this "Starr" twinkle. Her spontanity and wit are her outstanding qualities which radiate her personality.

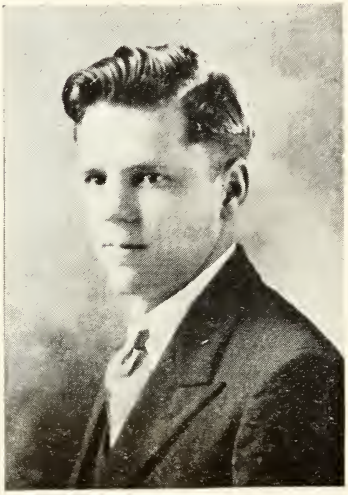
Temper—We wonder if she has one. Certainly on all occasions she displays that calmness and poise that are qualities to be envied.

One can always depend on Helen for seeing a thing through. A task once begun is always finished. Her reputation along this line surely did not make the teachers her enemies, for one could always depend on Helen as one in the class to have her lessons done.

We don't know exactly what Helen is intending to do but perhaps between the time this is written and June, Helen will make known to her public the big secret.

Whatever it might be, you are assured of the best wishes of 1932, Helen.

"For men may come and men may go, But I go on forever"



PETER JOSEPH STARR

"Soapy" "Pete"

General Course

Baseball 3-4; Football 3-4; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle.

How do boys! Here he is! Class of thirty-two's jokester, athlete, orator (and scholar) all combined in one. Without further introduction or comment, we know who the topic of our conversation is. "Pete" Starr, the play-boy of Clinton High School.

As an athlete "Pete" was one of the best. On the gridiron, he displayed an unusual amount of football talent for a school-boy, possessing everything a football player should have (except garters!!) He also excelled in baseball, being a first class catcher, and frequently filling in at the outfield.

We also remember "Pete's" famous speeches, orations, debates, and what not in room five. Without a doubt, he is universally acknowledged as the master of the "stump" among his classmates, and Mr. McGrail himself has honored "Pete" with the distinction of having an unusual amount of eloquence.

As to the above statement about "Pete's" being a scholar, we do not wish you to be disillusioned. We only want to impress the fact, that he is unusually skillful in getting off without an over abundance of red marks, with seemingly little study. There is no doubt as to "Pete's" success in the business world as already seen by his successful ventures on the managerial end of Clinton's leading basketball teams.

Good luck "Pete" from '32.

"Not bold, nor shy, nor short, nor tall,
But a new mingling of them all"

ADELE CLAIRE STEELE

"Steelie" "Sookie"

College Course

Treasurer of French Club 2; History Circle; Secretary of Debating Club 1; Photography Club; Eta Nu Gamma 2-3; Orchestra 1-2-3-4; Musical Comedy 1-3-4; Guest of Women's Club; Vice-President of Le Cercle Francais; Der Deutsche Verein; Junior Prom Committee; Assistant Editor-in-chief of Class Book; Reading Club.

Folks, we are now about to introduce our "Sookie." Adele surely is popular when it comes to the opposite sex, for did you ever see her without a partner at our socials? If you did you need to have your eyes examined.

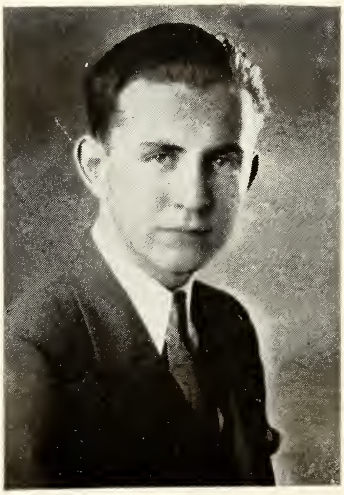
"Sookie" was one of the two girls who represented Clinton High at the Women's Club and did she enjoy its socials? She never failed to have a good time anywhere, especially while skating and playing tennis.

All this does not mean that Adele was up against it when it came to class recitations. On the contrary she usually tripped up for her share of "testies."

Adele was a faithful rooter at all the football games and how we wish the teachers, who think she has such a weak voice, could have heard her at the games cheering the team on. Adele has been a valuable addition both in volume and vim to the orchestra, and has been very conscientious in attendance at its meetings.

Adele intends to travel to St. Petersburg to attend a finishing school. We know that she will be a success wherever she goes so we'll just say "Good Luck."

"Men of few words are the best men"



FRANCIS ARTHUR STONE

"Fran" "Stoney" "Frank"

College Course

History Circle 4; Debating Society 1; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Tau Sigma 3; Baseball 3-4; Stage Manager of Interclass Dramatics 1.

Here is that modest, unassuming youth, whose sunny disposition has gained for him a host of friends.

Francis never gave "the powers that be" a chance to waste any red ink on his quarterly card nor did the telephone wires to his home ever sizzle with office reports.

When "Fran" becomes really athletically inclined, there is sure to be plenty of action, as has been proven by his show of skill while with several interclass teams in football, and in varsity baseball.

Francis may be seen at all socials having a grand time. His popularity is not with the girls alone, for he is in constant company with the young men and is one of the most promising young men in the school.

Next September "Fran" will be answering the roll call at Tufts and our best wishes for luck and success go with him.

"She mastered whatever was worth the knowing"

FLORENCE MARIE SUCHOVSKY

"Flo" "Stretch"

Commercial Course

Honorary Member of Clinton Historical Society; Costume Committee 4; Decoration Committee Junior Prom; Field Day Committee 1-2-3; History Circle; Washington Pageant; Senior Show Committee.

Look who's here! Of course everyone knows "Flo." At least everyone that goes to assembly on the day the 'testies" are given out, for Florence always gets her share.

"Flo" seems to spend a great deal of her time studying and one would suppose that she was quiet and studious, but she is quite the opposite. Anyone who could hear her in Bookkeeping IV would easily know that; and I wonder who does so much talking in the Study (?) Hall "F" Period? You can't be with "Flo" very long without being in good spirits.

The old saying "The best things come in small packages" is shattered when we see "Stretch." She is nearly the tallest in the class and one of the best students.

"Stretch's" personality and good nature has made her a popular member of the class.

Florence intends to take up nursing as her life work and the class of 1932 is sure she will succeed. Good Luck, Florence.

"A cheerful heart maketh a cheerful countenance"

MARGARET NANCY TATTERSALL

"Nance"

College Course

Class Vice-President 2; Eta Nu Gamma 2; History Circle; Honorary Member Clinton Women's Club; Honorary Member Clinton Historical Society; Junior Prom Committee; Washington Pageant; Reading Club; Senior Show; Interclass Dramatics 1-3; French Club 4; Debating Club 2; Editor-in-Chief Class Book.

"What is so rare as a day in June?" Well, ladies and gentlemen of my unseen audience, let me present you to something even more rare, a person who does much and says little, gets her opportunity and grasps it, who it seems has been successful in concocting a formula which combines study and fun in what must be the correct proportions, for we have always since the Freshman First Quarter, witnessed Nancy strolling up for her 5 or 6 testimonials.

Now you mustn't get the idea that Nancy is a "grind." Remember I said study AND fun. Nancy impressed us all with her acting ability, beginning with the Freshman Interclass Show and on into the Senior Show in which she had us all in "stitches" doing the hypochondriac, "Amelia."

Nancy was also one of the popular members of the History Circle in which she had no scruples about giving her opinion. As Editor-in-Chief of this Class Book, Nancy has given a great deal of her time and energy to make it a success.

"Nan's" goal is ? ? ? ? ? We wish her good luck. We know that in whatever field Nancy finally settles, she will be successful. She has found the secret of success—"Whatever you do, do well."

"As he thinketh in his heart, so is he"

WILLIAM HERMAN TAUBERT, JR.

"Tauby" "Billy" "Fritz"

General Course

Tau Sigma 3; Glee Club 4; Football 2; Junior Prom Committee; Junior Marshal; History Circle; Senior Show Committee; German Club 4; Class Book Staff; Cheer Leader 4; Stage Manager Interclass Dramatics 2; Interclass Track 1-2-3; Varsity Basketball 2.

"Bill" is a modest, quiet youth, but to all who know him, he is a great fellow, and is liked by everyone. A glance at the long list of activities will show the many ways in which "Bill" has labored for the class and for the school. If anything of note was taking place—you could be sure that "Bill" was in the middle of things and helping to the best of his ability to bring the undertaking to a successful conclusion.

Although "Tauby" was not always running up to Mr. Cobb to receive his testimonials, he did, however, manage to get one every now and then.

"Fritz" has had one good time in High School, but has always managed to get his studies done. He was well known as a cheer leader, and was largely responsible for such a good cheering section. The class could always depend on "Fritz" to bring home the bacon in the 100 yard dash on Field Day.

"Bill" is headed for Indianapolis to take up Physical Education and we know that he will succeed in whatever he tries. Best of luck "Bill" from the class of '32.

"To see her is to like her,
To know her is to love her"

HELEN FRANCES TRACY

"Hel"

Commercial Course

Eta Nu Gamma; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Class Book Staff.

Helen is one of our most popular and well liked classmates, whose charm and vitality has won her a place in the hearts of the members of '32.

Helen has a very keen sense of humor as is apparent to all in Period B—Room 4. She can always be relied upon to take as well as give jokes.

Helen never misses any of the High School dances, or any other for that matter. Her favorite occupation is "tripping the light fantastic toe." And can she dance? Well, just ask the boys that question. Helen puts pep into everything she does and she is indispensable at any dance or social.

As a student of the commercial course, Helen was chosen to be one of the Class Typists. She spent many hours typing all the work that makes up our "Class Book."

Although she has not yet decided what her life work is to be, we are confident that in whatever line of work she enters, she will surely be a success. She will probably some day grace somebody's office as a "stenog." Nothing is too good for "our Helen." We won't forget you!

"Hang sorrow! Care will kill a cat
And therefore let's be merry"

JOSEPH MAURICE TURCOTTE

"Soup" "Walyo"

College Course

Interclass Dramatics 1-2-3-4; Musical Comedy 3-4; Washington Pageant; History Circle; Tau Sigma; Treasurer French Club; Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Interclass Basketball; Interclass Hockey; Editor-in-Chief Class Book; Senior Show; Rotary Club Guest.

There goes "Ted" Turcotte down the street. No, no, that's "Ed." Thus the general run of conversation goes, but the topic of discussion usually turns out to be "Joe," (dressed in the "family" clothes), the innocent looking youth who was destined to bring honor and glory to the fair name of Clinton High. Because "Soup's" popularity is universal we will tell you a few things that made it so.

"Joe" was an outstanding actor, appearing in all the High School shows and usually "Joe" gave a side-splitting exhibition. He is our Editor-in-Chief, a distinction which is the finest accorded any Senior. He is also Clinton High's famous "Rudy Vallee," much of his singing being heard 2 or 3 times a week down the North End of the town. "Joe's" musical laughter ringing through the corridors of the High School will be greatly missed by his classmates and faculty.

Of course "Soup's" deceiving looks don't mean he is what you call an innocent fellow. In his four years of education he didn't receive testimonials in deportment but his other marks are all certificate grade.

It is going to be Clinton High's loss and Holy Cross' gain but we the class of 1932 wish you, "Joe," happiness and success.

"He who has knowledge spares his words"

ALEXANDER JOSEPH WIENCEK

"Aleck"

Commercial Course

History Circle; Glee Club; Tau Sigma; Baseball 3-4.

Four years ago, a modest, unassuming young lad entered the portals of Clinton High School. His entrance did not cause any special commotion among the faculty or student body, but, no doubt, his departure will, because he has been a mainstay on the varsity baseball team and a shining light on the interclass basketball team.

Although prominent in athletics, "Al's" marks testify that he did not allow them to interfere with his studies. Although we do not know much of "Al's" relation with the opposite sex, we are kept guessing because of his frequent attendance at all the dances and socials conducted by the school.

"Al" delights in voicing his opinions among students and faculty alike, and on several memorable occasions he has had lengthy verbal combats with faculty members. On the other hand, he has settled many an argument among his fellow students by his peaceful tactics.

"Al," one of our commercial pupils, goes out into the cruel world this year to combat this business depression. Carry on, "Al." 1932 will be backing you always.

"Not in reward, but in the strength to strive,
The blessing lies"

JOHN WILLIAM WIESMAN

"Wisey"

College Course

Varsity Football 2-3-4; Varsity Baseball 1-2-3-4; Interclass Dramatics 2-3; Musical Comedy 3-4; Senior Show; Washington Pageant; Class Treasurer 2; Class President 3-4; Ring Committee; Junior Marshal 3; Junior Prom Committee; French Club 4; History Circle; Tau Sigma 3; Glee Club 4; Honorary Member of Historical Society; Rotary Club Guest; Reading Club 4; Interclass Basketball and Hockey 4; Class Day Committees 2-3-4.

"A scholar and a gentleman." This expression is particularly applicable to Johnny, who in addition to ranking as one of the most studious pupils academically speaking, also has all the qualifications necessary to earn for him that old fashioned title of "gentleman."

As an athlete, he has no peer. Quarterback or center; catcher or second baseman; guard or forward; wing or goalie; he was always in there bearing the brunt of the attack. We'll never forget the pass he intercepted in the 1930 Maynard game, and Hudson fans will never forget his trick catching.

How he measured up to our estimation of him is shown by the fact that he was elected president in the Junior and Senior years. His unfailing tact, and consistently courteous and impartial administration of class affairs have made us proud of our choice.

John's going to Dartmouth and other colleges may well go green with envy for we are sure that his will be a successful career, if ability and our good wishes have anything to do with it.

"She's all my fancy painted her"

BERTHA DYSON WILLMAN

"Bert"

General Course

History Circle; Basketball 1-2; Washington Pageant; Eta Nu Gamma; Reading Club; Senior Show; Interclass Dramatics 4; Junior Prom Committee.

Who is the athletic miss that possesses the mischievous smile? No other than "Bert."

"Bert" is certainly an example of the statement "Looks are often deceiving." If Bertha looks quiet and wistful to you, forget it! For Bertha is anything else but!!

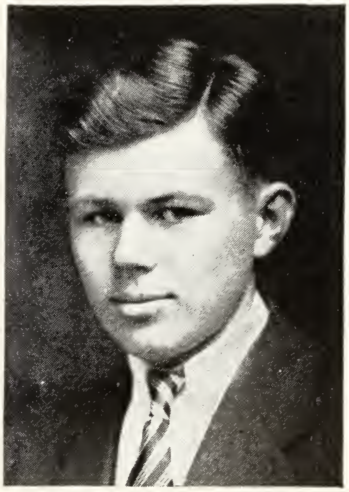
"Patience is a virtue" is another statement which can be applied to "Bert." Few of us have ever seen her angry or flustered. Of course with "Bert" we have to mention "Flo." For wherever Bertha is, you can just bet your boots that Florence is not very far in the distance.

"Bert" has also given us an exhibition of her talent as an actress and made quite a hit with her audience.

She intends to enter the ranks of the "white caps" and we know, if patience and disposition count in this profession, that "Bert" will be a grand success.

Best of luck from '32.

"By his work one knows the workman"



GLENN MORSE WILLMAN

"Glenn" "Willie"

General Course

Glee Club; Reading Club; History Circle.

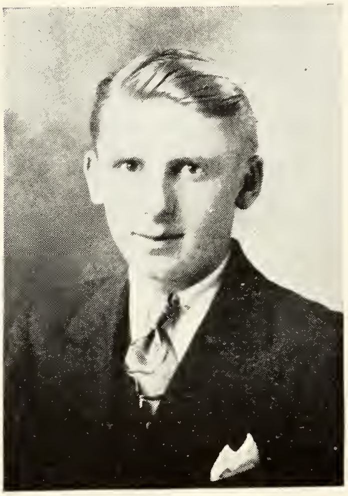
Well, here is our friend, Glenn; modest, quiet and jolly. Studies never seemed to worry him much, but we all know that he worked conscientiously, for he always managed to pull through the year without much trouble.

Glenn is very quiet indeed but look out for him; you know the old saying: "Still waters run deep." And say, talking about deep things, Glenn is a marvel when it comes to solving the profound problems of physics.

As a member of our newly organized Boys' Glee Club, Glenn could be seen or heard, any Wednesday afternoon contributing to the general din and confusion and occasional harmonious rendering of several selections. Let's hope that the preliminary training received this year will make him a real crooner at Northeastern.

Glenn has good intentions of entering Northeastern this fall. We know that his humor, straight-forwardness, and winning personality will always stand him in good stead.

"Observe the opportunity"



HENRY ZELENT

"Hashy" "Red"

College Course

History Circle; German Club; French Club 4.

Now we come to a member of "32" who makes all our classes happy. Who has ever been in a class with "Hash" who will forget his wit and good humor? Henry surely did have a faculty of bringing to light certain faults of both classmates and faculty, and the amusing way in which he accomplished this task, continually had the students in a happy state of mind.

Although "Hash" didn't participate in school athletics, sports by no means was a side issue in Henry's gay young life. Never will we forget his writeups in the newspaper concerning the unexcelled Biltmores. Henry always found time for his studies and was an excellent German student, being one of the most active members in "Der Deutsche Verein."

"Hash" was always on the "go," and his musical abilities always kept him in demand as an entertainer at club meetings.

Henry's plans for the future are as yet undecided, but wherever he goes and whatever he does, "32" wishes him the best of luck.

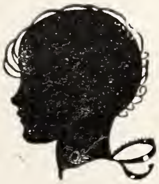
Class History



JUNIOR

SENIOR

CLASS OF 1932 AS FRESHMEN

September 5, 1928—On this day the class of '32 made its first appearance at Clinton High. We came the day before school opened to arrange our courses and become acquainted with the building. How intrepid we were then!

September 6, 1928—School opened. How many of us can truthfully say we didn't get lost at least once?

November 14, 1928—The end of the first quarter. Testimonials were given out at assembly and our class was well represented.

November 29, 1928—The annual Musical Comedy was presented. This year it was "The Bridal Wail," and many Freshmen helped to make it the success it was.

January 28, 1929—The week of the mid-year examinations. How we dreaded them and what a relief it was to get them over.

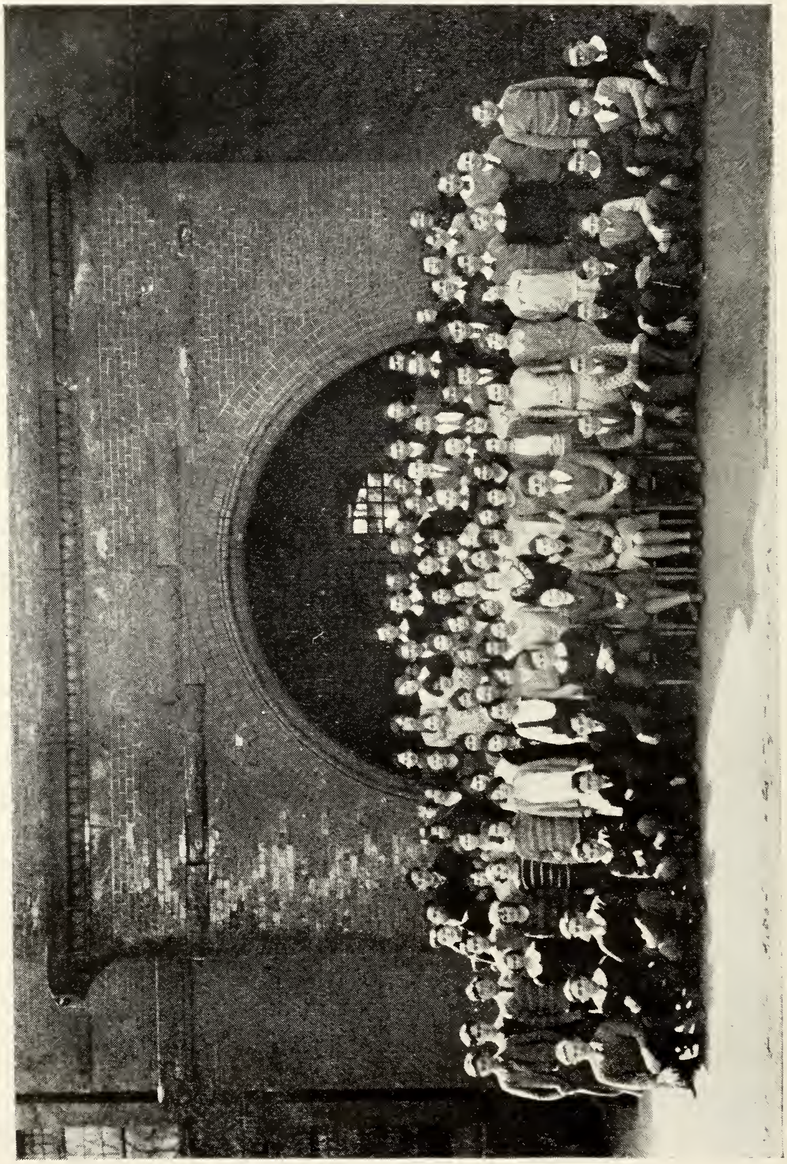
April 2, 1929—Our first chance to show our dramatic ability—the Interclass Dramatics. The play we presented was "The Ghost Hunters." And we weren't surprised when we took second place either.

April 26, 1929—In the annual gym exhibition all the girls in school took part.

June 21, 1929—Field Day. Old Jupiter Pluvius stopped our activities before they really started, however.

June 24, 1929—We went on our first picnic to Lake Whalom. We're looking forward eagerly to next year's picnic.

June 26, 1929—School closed today. It has been an exciting year and we all feel right "at home."



CLASS OF 1932 AS SOPHOMORES

Sophomore

September 4, 1929—Back again—this time we feel quite knowing and yet are still young enough to laugh at the Freshmen who are just as "lost" as we were last year.

September 28, 1929—The first football game of the season. We're certainly glad to see some of our classmates on the team.

November 28, 1929—We find our class actors and actresses in more prominent parts in this year's Musical Comedy which is called "Marrying Marian."

January 27, 1930—Midyear week again. We are firmly resolved to come off with our share of testimonials SO the books are taken home——and studied.

February 5, 1930—We had our first class election today. The following officers were elected: President, Fred Wissenbach; Vice-President, Nancy Tattersall; Treasurer, John Wiesman; Secretary, Catherine Long.

April 22, 1930—Our Interclass play this year is entitled "Respectfully Consecrated." It was very well performed although we did not take the first place.

June 20, 1930—We felt quite pleased with the results of Field Day this year. Our class took second place in the track meet.

June 24, 1930—Today we went on our class picnic. Again to Lake Whalom. We DO enjoy these picnics. Miss Comaskey was our chaperon.

June 26, 1930—School closed today and another year has gone. The time is simply flying.

CLASS OF 1932 AS JUNIORS

Junior

September 10, 1930—Coming back here each year has become a habit now. We are upper classmen now and this is going to be a busy year for us.

September 25, 1930—Our class election was held today. The officers for this year are: President, John Wiesman; Vice-President, Helen Balboni; Treasurer, Daniel Paul; Secretary, Catherine Long.

November 27, 1930—"The Pride of Pasadena" was the Musical Comedy given this year. There were many participants from our class.

January 25, 1931 — Midyears —— they're becoming monotonous——we still don't know what good they are.

March 2, 1931—The class voted for the class ring today. The ring chosen was green gold, with a green onyx stone upon which was a silver shield bearing the letters C. H. S. in green. The numerals were on the side.

March 3, 1931—We were measured for our rings today.

April 7, 1931—"Clean Linen" was the one-act play we put on in the Interclass Competition. It was a difficult play but our "emoters" put it over. Our class banner was hung in the Hall —our class selling the most tickets for the plays.

May 1, 1931—The committees for the Junior Prom were named today. Work on the decorations starts immediately.

June 9, 1931—Today we received our class rings and they're very good looking.

June 19, 1931—Rain again interfered with the activities of Field Day.

June 25, 1931—Our big night. The decorations were beautiful——thanks to the decorating committee. Everything went off perfectly and the prom was successful both socially and financially.

CLASS OF 1932 AS SENIORS

Memorabilia

September 9, 1931—Back to school for the last time. We're supposed to be dignified now, but who could be with the Hall as our home-room?

September 29, 1931—The class election was held today. The following officers were elected: President, John Wiesman; Vice-President, Helen Balboni; Treasurer, Daniel Paul; Secretary, Catherine Long.

November 10, 1931—Testimonials for the first quarter given out today ——the Seniors did their share of walking.

November 26, 1931—The Musical Comedy went over great. "The Count of No Account" was the production.

December 28, 1931—Well tonight we put on our show "Easy Pickin's." It was successfull dramatically, socially and financially.

March 8, 1932—The Class Book Staff was elected today. Joseph Turcotte and Nancy Tattersall are the editors-in-chief.

March 18, 1932—Today we picked the photographer for our class pictures.

March 29, 1932—The Interclass Dramatics already! "Honor Thy Father" was our presentation. We took first place in the competition. Our banner was again hung for selling the most tickets.

April 13, 1932—John P. McGrail was selected as the teacher to whom our Class Book will be dedicated.

April 18, 1932—The class motto chosen is "To Be, Not to Seem."

April 29, 1932—The Princeton Cannon Song is the tune to which our class song is to be written. Our days are numbered.

May 13, 1932—Our pictures arrived today and next week everyone will be busy exchanging them.

May 27, 1932—"O Hara San," a Japanese Operetta, was presented tonight for the benefit of the Athletic Association. It was very well performed.

FRESHMAN INTERCLASS SHOW—"THE GHOST HUNTERS"

"The Ghost Hunters"

Madge	Helen Balboni
Bunny	Nancy Tattersall
Bob	Joseph Turcotte
Homer	Thomas McDonald
Tim Hennessey	James Hamilton
The Ghost	John Murphy

It may easily be said that our freshman play was a howling success, for the audience heard enough of blood-curdling yells for one evening.

Four young students of Springvale High School take up a dare to remain in a haunted house until after midnight. One adventure follows another, and keeps the audience on the end of their chairs. Lights go out, girls faint and scream, the clock strikes twelve, the ghost enters, and then the capture.

It turns out to be a thief, who has been hiding there to escape capture. The girls are disappointed because it wasn't a real ghost, but are glad to go home.

Although we were inexperienced in plays, our little act came a close second, and we were congratulated by a most appreciative audience.

SOPHOMORE INTERCLASS SHOW—"RESPECTFULLY CONSECRATED"

"Respectfully Consecrated"

Tom Parkin	John Wiesman
Helen Martin	Helen Balboni
Mary Cooper	Marguerite Philbin
Bill Nettle	Joseph Turcotte
Ethel Thurston	Mary Murphy
Frank Gibbs	Francis McCann

"Respectfully Consecrated" by Malcolm E. Moran was our presentation as sophomores. Tom Parkin, a young man of serious principles, steps out into the business world as bank messenger earning fifteen dollars a week.

He attends a party given at the home of Helen Martin, and proposes to her while the rest are out on the piazza. She refuses, telling him that she has to leave for college in another month; whereupon, he asks her to promise she will be his bride when she is graduated.

Helen reluctantly tells him she will not promise until he has an automobile. The rest of the gang comes into the living-room at this point, and Bill Nettle, Tom's rival for Helen's attention, displays his superiority by being able to guess an object picked while he was out of the room.

Tom, in a fit of jealousy, bets thirty dollars against Bill's auto, that he can guess as well as Bill. Of course, the secret to Bill's success was a trick arranged by him with Frank.

While Tom is out of the room, they pick the mirror. He guesses correctly because he can see their actions in the mirror when his back is turned. He wins the car and Helen's promise while the others leave for home on foot.

This charming little play offered many laughs to the audience, and again we came out second in the competition being surpassed only by the seniors.

JUNIOR INTERCLASS SHOW—"CLEAN LINEN"

"Clean Linen"

Jennie O'Brien	Nancy Tattersall
Mr. Aiken	Edmund Noonan
Jimmie Connors	John Wiesman
Mayme Kelly	Helen Balboni
Phineas G. Tolliver	Joseph Turcotte
Mrs. Tolliver	Mary Murphy

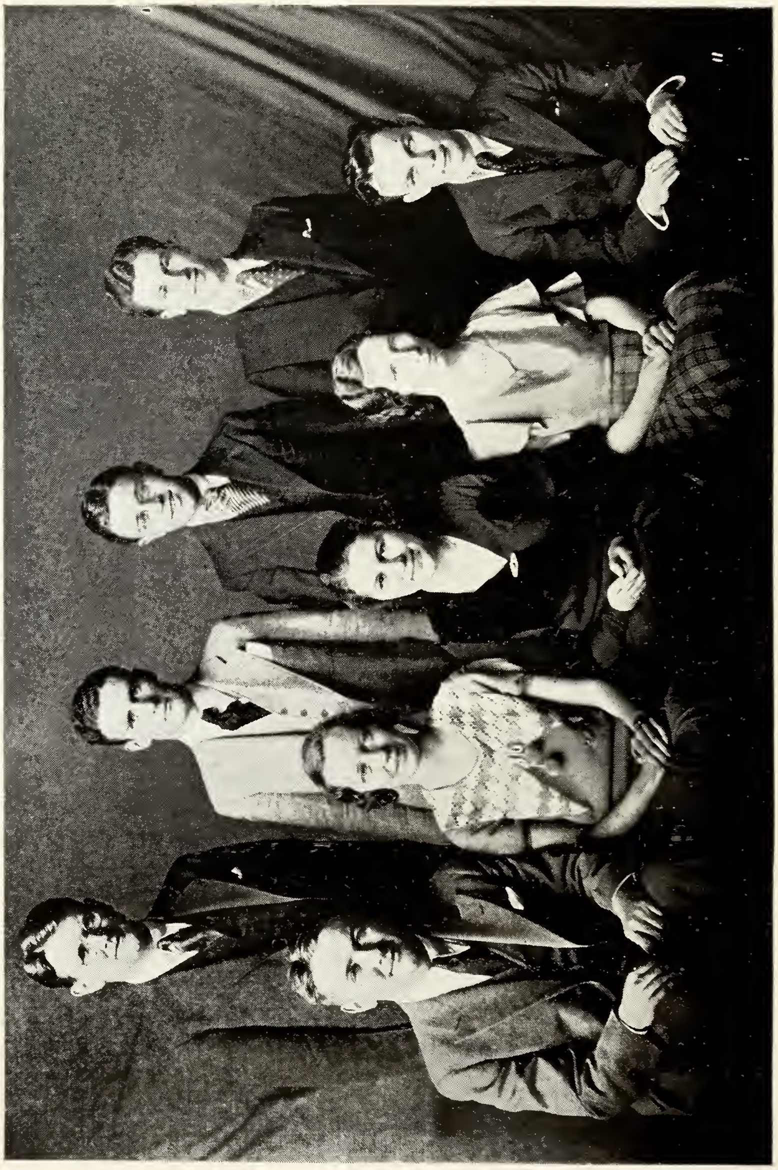
This year, our class presented a most amusing comedy, "Clean Linen," which had great appeal to the audience. This play might easily have been entitled, "Love Troubles Behind Laundry Checks," for that is the exact plot.

Mrs. Tolliver, the dominating wife of a timid, little soul, places notes in the pockets of her husband's shirts when she sends them to the laundry. She does this to test the integrity of the girls who do the work. Jimmie Connors, the best collector for the company, discovers the notes, and pays the extra charge to have them done by Mayme Kelly, the fine handwork girl, to see if she will answer them.

Although Mayme and Jimmie are sweethearts, they have had an argument, and do not speak to each other. Mayme decides to answer the notes, much to the disgust of her co-worker, Jennie O'Brien.

Everything turns out all right when Mr. and Mrs. Tolliver come into the shop, and Jimmie confesses his part in the plot.

Mayme forgives him, and curtains ring down with Mr. Aiken, proprietor of the laundry, advertising for a competent laundress for handwork, who must have cross-eyes, bow-legs, and a hare lip!



SENIOR INTERCLASS SHOW—"HONOR THY FATHER"

"Honor Thy Father"

Father	David Gould
Mother	Marguerite Philbin
Becky	Bertha Willman
Violet	Natalie Johnson
Ronald	Joseph Turcotte
Vickers	A. A. McGrail
Ted	Thomas McDonald

For our Senior enterprise, we chose a charming character study of English home life, which was more difficult to present than the usual comedy.

The play was centered about the children of the family, who presented their various views on whether or not their mother should be informed regarding the actions of their father, whom they had seen with a strange woman in Picadilly.

After arguing pro and con, the mother enters; whereupon, Violet tells her mother about the "other woman." There is a pause before the mother explains that it is no one but the dressmaker whom the father had hired to make her a dress for a gift.

All parts were admirably portrayed with a smoothness and quality that is only present in professional performances.

It was our last appearance in the Town Hall as students, and this time, we captured the title of winners, both for our play and ticket-selling.

We have come and gone, but we hope our performances have done their share to make the dramatics something for which our school may be proud.

SENIOR PLAY—'EASY PICKIN'S'

"Easy Pickin's"

George Brackton	A. A. McGrail
Margaret Brackton	Bertha Willman
David Delmar	Joseph Turcotte
Amelia Delmar	Nancy Tattersall
Hugh Delmar	Edmund Noonan
Geraldine	Louise Clougherty
Johnson	Richard Brennan
Rosanne Markle	Helen Balboni
Robert Jones	John Wiesman
Gertrude Warden	Natalie Johnson
Bartley Carson	Thomas McDonald
Inez Carson	Mary Murphy
Ching Lee	Daniel Paul
Bridget	Marguerite Philbin

"Easy Pickin's," our Senior play, was a more difficult one than the usual run. George and Margaret Brackton, after twenty-five years of struggling, have built the home of their dreams. They decide to throw a house-party to their friends of college days——and then the fun begins.

Among the guests are Amelia and David Delmar, and their son, Hugh. He finds his sweetheart there, working as Geraldine, the maid. She turns out to be the daughter of the two uninvited guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carson, who are wrapped in a veil of mystery.

Rosanne Markle, a young actress of great wealth, falls in love with Robert Jones, a young man who has been traitor to his government. To add to the confusion, a petty thief, disguised under the name of Gertrude Warden appears, with Johnson, the flat-foot detective, close at her heels.

Trouble ensues when Amelia loses her necklace, and both Ching Lee and Bridget swear they saw Gertrude with it. Besides, Amelia, a hopeless hypochondriac, keeps the servants busy getting her food—and especially orange juice.

However, Rosanne regains the jewels from the thief, hands them over to their owner, and assists Carson, who turns out to be a police agent. She begs Jones to hand over the government papers, but when he gives them back, they turn out to be unimportant, and real ones are found at the office.

Geraldine marries Hugh when she is forgiven by her parents whom she had suspected as thieves. Rosanne and Robert leave soon after together, and the curtain falls with Amelia out in the kitchen again after———food!

And so another senior play may be written down in the book of success with a large "1 9 3 2."

Football

With the opening of the 1931 football season, prospects for a light but speedy eleven, looked very promising indeed. With a few seasoned veterans and a score of underclassmen having all the earmarks of good players, practice commenced in the early days of September.

Our first game was with the strong Gardner team. We were defeated by the score of 15-0. Considering the strength of the opposition and the inexperience of the locals, it was a very creditable showing and a prosperous season was predicted.

However, for some unknown cause, our eleven failed to present another game worthy of any praise, during the season. Against Milford, we showed up amazingly weak, as compared with Gardner. The team from the very beginning, lacked that much-needed scoring punch.

Against Marlboro and Hudson, our boys revealed the better strength, but a collective force could not be mustered strong enough to tally a score.

Although it can readily be said that our team produced the most disastrous season of any eleven to represent Clinton High, in later years, these defeats may be the forerunners of many successes.

To take a defeat and study the "why" of it, is success: to take a defeat with a negative attitude is failure.

baseball

With six regulars and two substitutes from last year's team still in the school, a promising year in baseball was easily seen. "Joe's" call for candidates brought forth a young army of enthusiasts and from this array was selected the group which, we hoped, was to uphold the traditional quality of Clinton High's baseball teams.

At the time this is written, the baseball team has made a very good showing. We lost two Midland League games which we never should have lost and took a beating from Milford High—a team which is going places this year. Our wins, however, have been, as a rule, by overwhelming scores such as—26-10 against Marlboro; 9-1 against Fitchburg; and a very satisfactory trouncing to Leominster by the score of 30-7. That pays us back in part, for the way they treated us in football last year.

We managed to defeat both Maynard and Hudson later in the season which put us back in the running for Midland League honors. Of course, at this time we can't tell how we will come out in the league, but we feel sure that if we play off that tie game with Marlboro, we will beat them.

The class was represented on the team by Horne, O'Toole, Wiesman, Stone, Wiencek and Despotopulos, all of whom contributed their share to the success of the team.

The schedule follows:

History Circle

President—Thomas McDonald Secretary—Mabel Cairns
Vice-Pres.—Edward O'Toole Financial Sec.—Louise Clougherty

The History Circle began its fifth year under the direction of John P. McGrail of the Faculty. A hot and heavy political campaign was inaugurated to elect officers, the respective parties taking the names of Boomerangs and Radicals. After the smoke and hot air of sizzling rallies had cleared away the result was that the Radicals had swept their candidates into office. Many interesting debates were held with the members of this organization participating. The club also enjoyed the many socials that were held during the year.

The History Circle put on a play celebrating the 200th anniversary of George Washington before the students of the High School and repeated the performance at the Holder Memorial for the benefit of the Clinton Historical Society. Those who took part were John Wiesman, as Washington; A. A. McGrail as Thomas Paine; Thomas McDonald as Munroe; and Joseph Turcotte as Hamilton.

Le Cercle Francais

President—John Ruane
Vice-President—Adele Steele
Secretary—Barbara Macora
Treasurer—Joseph Turcotte

"Le Cercle Francais," one of the most active organizations in the High School, is composed of Seniors taking Advanced French. Its aim is to further and make more interesting the study of French, by the use of French, at the meetings.

As in former years, we organized this year with one hope,—to carry on this organization more successfully than in former years. This year we have started the printing of a French newspaper, "Le Petit Journal," under the direction of David Gould and Rose Schanberg, editor and editor-in-chief respectively. This newspaper brings to us bits of information concerning our school in French and is eagerly looked forward to by all the members of the club.

The main social object of this club is a banquet in June where the members unite for the last time. We shall never forget nor regret the many pleasant afternoons we spent together. Its success is mostly due to Miss Kerrigan, our able advisor, and it is only to her guidance and experience in managing a club that we owe our achievements.

"Der Deutsche Verein"

President—Alwin Baer Secretary—Helen A. Starr
Vice-President—Frieda Heinold Treasurer—Sydney Perkins

The German Club, one of the most active organizations in Clinton High, was organized March 11, 1932. It is composed of students interested in the further study of the German language, the country and its people. This end was accomplished by the reading of German books and by talks given by our faculty sponsor, Miss Comaskey.

Meetings were held weekly in the afternoons and a social of some kind was held each month. The club was most fortunate in that it consisted of many talented members who provided the entertainment.

Committees for refreshments and entertainments were chosen monthly, thereby giving each member a chance to serve.

The members of the club are greatly indebted to Miss Comaskey under whose dictatorship the club derived much enjoyment and valuable knowledge.

Photography Club

President—Wayne Pierce Secretary-Treasurer—Catherine Long

The Photography Club was organized during the past year, under the direction of Mr. Dyer, and weekly meetings were continued until College Entrance Board classes were started. From that time on activity of the club was greatly decreased because chemical laboratory, where our dark room is located, was in almost constant use afternoons.

The object of the club was to instruct interested students in proper methods of taking and finishing pictures. Each member of the club was required to print and enlarge pictures themselves, under the capable direction of Wayne Pierce and Joseph Healey.

The dark room equipment at the present time consists of an automatic printer constructed by the boys named above, which greatly lessens the time required for printing pictures, and also an Eastman automatic focusing enlarger. All snapshot pictures in this book were printed or enlarged by members of the club.

The club will function again next term and we know that it will become one of the most interesting clubs in the school.

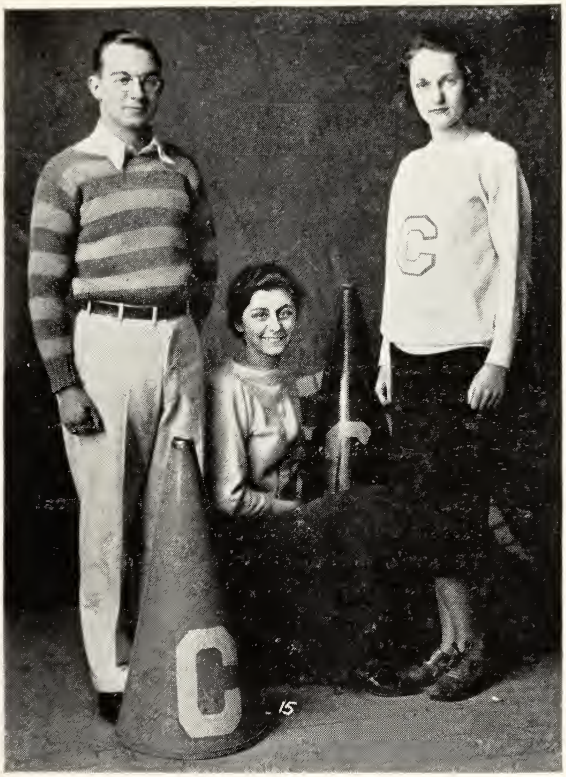
Orchestra

Our orchestra was under the careful supervision of Miss Driscoll who by her patience and hard work made it a creditable asset to C. H. S.

It has been more active than usual this year because of its participation in the Japanese Operetta, "O Hara San," where it gave a very delightful performance.

Although the orchestra was few in number, it was great in enthusiasm. We hope that in future years it will have more members who will be willing to give time during school for practicing. It is an organization in which the four classes may participate so, indeed, it should be larger in proportion to the size of the school.

On the night of graduation, the orchestra was a great success and was, indeed, a credit to Miss Driscoll who worked so hard to have it such.



Cheer Leaders

Clinton High School was fortunate this past year in having an excellent cheering section and credit for this achievement must go to our cheer leaders, William Taubert, Helen Balboni and Eileen O'Brien, who did their best at all games to encourage members of the teams by real cheering. Cheering and singing of football songs were rehearsed at assemblies and with the whole school present on those occasions the result was indeed gratifying. We sincerely hope that the calibre of our cheer leaders is maintained in the years to come.

1932 Class Song

Words by Natalie Johnson
Tune: Cannon Song of Princeton University

We've come to the time for fond adieus
When from our friends we part
So we our aim in life may choose
And on Fate's Ship embark.
Our four years spent at Clinton High
To us will always be
With thoughts of work, of play, of gain,
The dearest memory.

And now that we have reached one goal
Within our power to grasp,
To work, attain, our chosen aim,
Remains our life-long task.
Our teachers to us all have taught,
With patience and with care,
The way to find Success in life,
Is just to play it fair.

CHORUS:

"To be and not to seem"
Will spur us on and up in life.
Work—gain—our every aim
Overcoming self and strife.
Memories fond and dear,
We'll ne'er forget the years passed here.
With a heart that is true,
We bid you fond adieu,
Dear Clinton High.

Just Suppose

Long was short.
Wiesman was dumb.
Stone was wood.
Steele was Stone.
"Doc" forgot to clear his throat.
Mr. Cobb failed to state college requirements at Assembly.
Miss Kerrigan lost her knack of quick repartee.
Florence Suchovsky didn't know her "stuff."
Ruthie Gorman forgot to smile.
"Danny," "Slugger" and "Pip" weren't together.
"Allie" McGrail lost his laugh.
"Rosie" Schoepfer got thin.
Joseph Turcotte could stop laughing once he started.

We adopted Mr. Cobb's idea of entering Town Hall by the three doors.
Helen and Frieda weren't the artists in our class.
"Joe" Morrison got really interested in a girl.
"Joe" Massalski ever caused a disturbance.
M. Nancy Tattersall forgot the M.
"Bert" Willman got excited.
"Dick" Brennan couldn't keep us entertained.
"Tommie" Walsh didn't have a "John Harvard" haircut.
"Betty" Kramer forgot to come after the basement slips.
Eleanor Eakins sprouted a few inches.
"Marg" Angier's eyes didn't remind you of Garbo.
Alec Wiencek lost an argument.
"Tauby" didn't win a prize waltz.
Mark Moran ceased blushing.
Mabel Cairns failed to register with the opposite sex.
Harvey Dudley tried to dance with Gertrude Hanney.
"Allie" stopped telling the history of Ireland.
"Wiesy" didn't add to the success of the tea dances.
"Doc" didn't shout—"Talking stopped in study hall."
The Junior Prom didn't recall memories.
Commencement didn't make us (for once) feel serious.
